A Voice in the Wilderness

God tells His servants in His Word, “Cry aloud, spare not. Lift up your voice like a trumpet and declare to My people their transgression and to the house of Jacob their sins!” (Isa.58:1, Parallel Amplified Bible).

God also declares: “Comfort, comfort My people, says your God. Speak tenderly to the heart of Jerusalem, and cry to her that her time of service and her warfare are ended, that [her punishment is accepted and] her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received [punishment] from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins.”

We are living in a world gone berserk with anger and rage. “Why do the nations rage?” (Psalm 2:1). Answer – because they don’t know the true God, and are in rebellion against His laws and teachings and the true way of life and peace!

Isaiah wrote: “A voice of one who cries: Prepare in the wilderness the way of the Lord [clear away the obstacles]; make straight and smooth a highway for our God. . . . And the glory (majesty and splendor) of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken it” (Isaiah 40:3-5).

The Messiah is coming very SOON! Its time to prepare to MEET Him! “Surely the Lord will do nothing without revealing His secret to His servants the prophets” (Amos 3:7). The purpose of this magazine is to warn the world of what lies ahead, and to help prepare people to get ready to meet the Messiah, when He returns to restore all things (Acts 3:19-21), put an end to wars, and usher in the Kingdom of God! The prophet Amos declared, “Prepare to meet your God, O Israel” (Amos 4:12). No matter is more urgent, today!

Where Are We Now in Bible Prophecy?

How much longer till Christ returns? What is the future for America, since the elections? The evidence is piling up, the timelines are converging, and terrible times are in the offing. The die is cast. The sins of the world, and America, have reached a saturation point, and there is no sign of repentance, or contrition, or remorse for all our wrong-doing, but instead defiance, hatred, blasphemy, and rebuke.

How much longer till judgment falls? Daniel’s 70 weeks prophecy, and Rabbi Judah Ben Samuel’s predictions, pinpoint the time of the end – and the brightest comet in centuries, if not millennia, is approaching the solar system. Is the 2013 Comet “Ison” the end-time sign of the “Son of man” and His soon coming?

What’s Next for America?

Many Americans today are somewhere between a state of shock and complete and total devastation. What happened? What does the re-election of Barack Obama mean for America and the whole world? What does Bible prophecy say on this issue? What does the future hold for YOU? The answers are revealed in Bible prophecy!

William F. Dankenbring

Well, the election is over.

“The captains and the kings depart; still stands Thine ancient sacrifice – an humble and a contrite heart.” So wrote Rudyard Kipling in “The Recessional.”

America has chosen her destiny – her fate – her future beckons. Will it be fun in the sun, prosperity and peace, joy and good times? Or will it be calamity and confusion, catastrophe and chaos, chagrin and hopelessness?

As Obama won the presidency for a second term, his followers and sycophants danced in the streets, laughed and twirled, and acted like hilarious idiots – foolish children who have gotten their way. But what a way is it?

Upon hearing the election returns, many conservatives and Christians said, “America is doomed.” After all the negative campaigning, with the horrendous political ads run by the Obama campaign masters, demonizing Mitt Romney, it seems much of the mud stuck to the Republican candidate, and he was not able make his case for changing the course of the nation and restoring fiscal sanity. Obama will continue to spend the nation into the poorhouse until all prosperity is gone, and colossal debt swamps the ship of state.

Voter Fraud Rampant

The Philadelphia Enquirer reported that “it’s one thing for a Democratic presidential candidate to dominate a Democratic city like Philadelphia, but check out this head-spinning figure: In 59 voting divisions in the city, Mitt Romney received not one vote. Zero. Zilch.

“These are the kind of numbers that send Republicans into paroxysms of voter-fraud angst, but such results may not be so startling after all.

“We have always had these dense urban corridors that are extremely Democratic,” said Jonathan Rodden, a political science professor at Stanford University. “It’s kind of an urban fact, and you are looking at the extreme end of it in Philadelphia.”

“Most big cities are politically homogeneous, with 75 percent to 80 percent of voters identifying as Democrats.

“Cities are not only bursting with Democrats: They are easier to organize than rural areas where people live far apart from one another, said Sasha Issenberg, author of The Victory Lab: The Secret Science of Winning Campaigns.

“ ‘One reason Democrats can maximize votes in Philadelphia is that it’s very easy to knock on every door,’ Issenberg said.

“Still, was there not one contrarian voter in those 59 divisions, where unofficial vote tallies have President Obama outscoring Romney by a combined 19,605 to 0?

“The unanimous support for Obama in these Philadelphia neighborhoods – clustered in almost exclusively black sections of West and North Philadelphia – fertilizes fears of fraud, despite little hard evidence.

“Upon hearing the numbers, Steve Miskin, a spokesman for Republicans in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives, brought up his party’s voter-identification initiative – which was held off for this election - and said, ‘We believe we need to continue ensuring the integrity of the ballot.’

“The absence of a voter-ID law, however, would not stop anyone from voting for a Republican candidate.

“Larry Sabato, a political scientist at the University of Virginia who has studied African American precincts, said he had occasionally seen 100 percent of the vote go for the Democratic candidate. Chicago and Atlanta each had precincts that registered no votes for Republican Sen. John McCain in 2008.

“ ‘I’d be surprised if there weren’t a handful of precincts that didn’t cast a vote for Romney,’; he said. But the number of zero precincts in Philadelphia deserves examination, Sabato added.

“ ‘Not a single vote for Romney or even an error? That’s worth looking into,’ he said. Was there voter fraud in the 2012 presidential election?

A Nation Bewitched

It seems incredible that millions of Americans could be so dazzled, so bamboozled, so struck dumb by imperious and callous political campaign lies, innuendoes, and character assassination and smears. America’s “liar in chief” has done it again. Adolph Hitler was right. Tell a lie big enough and often enough and millions will believe it.

The people have chosen. God warns us in His Word, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from being priest for Me; because you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children. The more they increased, the more they sinned against Me; I will change their glory into shame” (Hosea 4:6-7).

The people have been deceived and deluded. They have believed a lie. They have fallen into great sin and evil. They don’t seem to realize it, but they are dancing on the edge of the abyss – they are celebrating on the edge of the cliff. One young man smiled, laughed, and said, “I’m going to go and smoke a lot of pot,” in his glee.

Why have so many people fallen for this corrupter and polluter and fountain of lies and false promises? Why do they pin their hopes on him? How have they been so hypnotized?

The apostle Paul spoke of the coming of the “man of sin,” the “son of perdition,” who would be revealed in his time in the latter days (II Thess.2:3). He spoke of his being “restrained” until the time of his revealing arrived. Paul wrote, “For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only He who now restrains will do so until He is taken out of the way. And THEN the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the breath of His mouth and destroy with the brightness of His coming.” Paul added, “The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and LYING wonders, and with all unrighteous DECEPTION among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved” (II Thess.2:7-10).

The key foundation of the Obama administration is DECEPTION! It is the most “lawless” administration in American history, bar none. It has surged into power by a clever manipulation of people’s emotions, minds, and an incredible array of lies, false statements, accusations, and sheer prevarications and mendacity.

The “working of Satan” the devil is evident behind the schemes, orchestrating his rise and ascendancy to power. It is Satan himself who will bring this individual to power and give him world-wide authority over the nations! He will rise up, “his arrival is due to SATAN’S ACTIVITY, with the full power, the miracles and portents, of falsehood, and with the full deceitfulness of evil for those who are doomed to perish, since they refuse to love the Truth that would save them” (Moffatt translation).

Take Off the Blinders

Many people are now expecting things will work out – let the good times roll! Yet, knowing and knowledgeable leaders are fearful – terrified – of the future. They are not taken in by the audacious claims and braggadocio of Obama's entourage. Many feel a sense of woe, panic, sorrow, tragedy, deep sadness.

The apostle Paul warned, looking into our day, "For when they say, 'Peace and safety!' then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape" (I Thess.5:3).

Isaiah cried out, seeing the future of America, "Wail, for the day of the LORD is at hand! It will come as a destruction from the Almighty. Therefore all hands will be limp, every man's heart will melt, and they will be afraid. Pangs and sorrows will take hold of them; they will be in pain as a woman in childbirth; they will be amazed at one another; their faces will be like flames" (Isaiah 13:6-8).

Is God angry with America? Has the modern world "crossed the line"?

The majority of the people jubilantly dance in the streets, women shimmer and shake like night club dancers, glorying in the victory of Obama, a man who defies the living God, flagrantly trumpets his disdain for the Scriptures, ridicules the Word of God, embraces the gay life style and community and gay marriage, and flagrantly flouts the laws of God as well as the laws of the nation.

The common worldly attitude was expressed by the prophet Isaiah, who wrote, "And in that day the Lord GOD of hosts called for weeping and for mourning, for baldness and for girding with sackcloth. But instead, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating meat and drinking wine: 'Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die!'" (Isaiah 22:12-13).

How bad is the common attitude of especially young people and many multitudes in our midst, today? Isaiah says, "Then it was revealed in my hearing by the LORD of hosts, 'Surely for this iniquity there will be no atonement for you, even to your death,' says the Lord GOD of hosts" (v.14). The condition is fatal.

The Day of the Lord

The nation has embarked on a wrong course. It refuses to turn around. So it is hell bent on its own destruction. And therefore God declares, "Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with both wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate; and He will destroy its sinners from it. For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not give their light; the sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will halt the arrogance of the proud, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible [or, tyrants, margin]" (Isaiah 13:9-11).

America has taken the wrong fork in the road. It is the way that leads to catastrophe and cataclysm. We are embarking on a destructive course which will consume us, because we have refused to be taught, to learn our lesson, and to confess our sins and shortcomings. We have turned our backs on God and severe punishment lies ahead.

Strangers in Our Midst

In the recent election, the Hispanic vote and the black vote went for Obama by huge majorities. They proved to be the margin of victory for Obama – the “strangers” within our gates out-voted the descendants of Joseph and the house of Israel – the Anglo-Saxon people who founded this great nation. The Anglo-Saxon people are primarily the descendants of Ephraim, the son of Joseph, son of Jacob, and were prophesied to become a great nation of states and peoples in the last days (Gen.48:12-20; 49:22-26; Deut.33:13-17).

God warned of Ephraim in the last days, “Ephraim has mixed himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake unturned. Aliens have devoured his strength, but he does not know it; yes, gray hairs are here and there on him, yet he does not know it. And the pride of Israel testifies to his face, but they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek Him for all this” (Hosea 7:8-10).

God declared in Leviticus, “I will set My face against you, and you shall be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you shall reign over you, and you shall flee when no one pursues you” (Lev.26:17-18). God adds, “I will break the pride of your power . . . And your strength shall be spent in vain” (vs.19-20).

In the book of Deuteronomy, God thunders, “Cursed shall you be when you come in, and cursed shall you be when you go out. The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke in all that you set your hand to do, until you are destroyed and until you perish quickly because of the wickedness of your doings in which you have forsaken Me” (Deut.28:19-20).

Says the LORD, “The alien who is among you shall rise higher and higher above you, and you shall come down lower and lower. He shall lend to you, but you shall not lend to him; he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. Moreover all these curses shall come upon you and pursue and overtake you, until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the voice of the LORD your God . . .” (Deut.28:43-45).

America’s strength is being devoured because of the political influence of those whom God calls “aliens” in our midst – people who are not of true Israelite ancestry – people who have an alien cultural heritage. Multiculturalism is killing America and the Western world.

In foreign affairs, or foreign policy, God says, “Ephraim is like a silly dove, without sense—they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria. Wherever they go, I will spread My net on them; I will bring them down like birds of the air; I will chastise them according to what their congregation has heard” (Hos.7:11-12). Barack Obama courts the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt – but it will end in disaster. He seeks unity and help from the European Union – but it will not succeed in preventing collapse and economic ruin.

God declares, further, “They sow the wind, and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no bud; it shall never produce meal. If it should produce, aliens would swallow it up. Israel is swallowed up; now they are among the Gentiles like a vessel in which is no pleasure. For they have gone up to Assyria [Germany and the European Union], like a wild donkey alone by itself; Ephraim [America] has hired LOVERS. Yes, though they have hired among the nations [by trying to buy influence through foreign aid], now I will gather them; and they shall sorrow [begin to diminish] a little, because of the burden [oracle, proclamation] of the king of princes” (Hos.8:7-10).

America is set on a wrong course, economically and internationally. We have rejected the laws of God and the founding principles of our nation, which were largely based on the laws of the Torah. We have forgotten God, and removed His Word from our educational institutions and our government. Once “Christian” America has become “secular” America.

God says, “For the LORD has spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against Me; the ox knows its owner and the donkey its master’s crib; but Israel does not know, My people do not consider. Alas, sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a brood of evildoers, children who are corrupters! They have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked to anger the Holy One of Israel, they have turned away backward” (Isaiah 1:2-4).

Moses gives us a similar warning of what would befall Israel in the latter days. In the Song of Moses, he lamented, “They have corrupted themselves; they are not His children, because of their blemish: A perverse and crooked generation. Do you thus deal [repay] with the LORD, O foolish and unwise people? Is He not your Father, who bought you? Has He not made you and established you? Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations . . .” (Deut.32:5-7).

“But Jeshurun [Israel] grew fat and kicked; you grew fat, you grew thick, you are obese! Then he forsook God who made him, and scornfully esteemed the Rock of his salvation. They provoked Him to jealousy with foreign gods [religions]; with abominations [detestable acts] they provoked Him to anger. They sacrificed to demons, not to God, to gods they did not know [such as Allah, Buddha, the Hindu gods], to new gods, new arrivals that your fathers did not fear. Of the Rock who begot you, you are unmindful, and have forgotten the God who fathered you” (vs.15-18).

Obama’s Master Plan

On March 16, 2012 Obama (America’s Fraud President) wrote and signed Executive Order 13603 naming it: “National Defense Resources Preparedness,” and while a few conservative media outlets wrote a handful of stories about this outrageous Executive Order, the interest died out.

The pieces of the Obama puzzle are falling into place and his sinister plan is emerging clearer than ever: Use of weapons of mass destruction on Americans! Through Executive Order 13603 Obama gave himself the power to control all vital aspects of our beloved nation. The execution of Obama's America-killing plan as it unfolds—is HORRENDOUS!

“Seizing of all forms of civil transportation.”

Obama specially wrote “civil” NOT “public” transportation. In the name of a national emergency (which Obama has yet to define which, in turn, means he can define it any way he wants) he can grab ALL forms of transportation civilians use, including:

- Automobiles, trucks and delivery vehicles
- Boats and ships
- Your cars, your children's cars and even grandma's car
- City buses
- Trains
- Airplanes
- Motorcycles
- Bicycles
- Scooters, skateboards and wagons
- Horse and buggies
- Snowmobiles
- Tractors (Yes, some people drive to town on tractors)

President Obama forgot to tell us that he can grab ALL FORMS OF CIVIL TRANSPORTATION, didn't he? How convenient and duplicitous it is for him to keep all the citizens of America in the dark.

But it doesn't stop there.

Obama doesn't stop at just grabbing transportation but will grab the food out of your mouth. He will also grab all commodities and products capable of being ingested by either human beings or animals. The lame stream media not only turned a blind eye to Obama's evil deeds but has refused to comment on the Obama grab when presented with the facts!

“All commodities and products capable of being ingested by either human beings or animals.”

In other words all food products, growing, picked and in store, including:

- Farm crops
- Inventory in grocery stores
- Grandmas garden vegetables
- Your canned goods
- Dog food and livestock feed
- Survival food cache
- Fish from fish farms

- Fruit from orchards

Health resources, which include, but are not limited to: drugs, biological products, medical devices, materials, facilities, health supplies, services and equipment.

Sound impossible? Look up Executive Order 13603 yourself. Our nation is on the brink of total tyranny and dictatorship! The President has given himself the POWER – and the dumb sheep have unwittingly prescribed and written their own punishment, by the voting him another term in office. It is shocking – frightening. But it is real.

It has been proven time after time Obama is a liar and cheat. This is why he has earned the name “America’s Fraud President.” He has lied to the American people about his college transcripts, his law license, his birth certificate and his master piece ObamaCare and ObamaTax.

If you have not seen it yet I strongly urge you to go see the documentary movie, 2016. You will be shocked and appalled at what you learn. You will be shocked at how Obama’s ideologies were formed and by what his true plan is for subverting our country.

Executive Order 13603 is another piece to the puzzle that brings together Obama’s evil master plan.

What’s Ahead for America?

Mike Adams, the editor of NaturalNews, sees ten dire consequences of Obama’s election victory. He writes, “What does an Obama re-election mean for the next four years in America? Now that he's in his second and last term, of course, Obama no longer needs to restrain his actions according to popularity. He can simply unleash any desirable executive order and rule by decree, bypassing Congress as he has frequently promised to do.

“This puts America in a very dangerous situation, given Obama's well-demonstrated desire to destroy freedom and liberty in this nation. Remember: Obama is anti health freedom, anti food freedom, anti GMO labeling, anti medical freedom and anti farm freedom. He's the one who issued an executive order claiming government ownership over all farms and farm equipment, in case you forgot that little fact.

“He's also the guy who just recently issued an executive order merging Homeland Security with local corporate entities to grant the executive branch of government a power monopoly over the nation, bypassing the courts and Congress. You probably haven't even heard about that one, because he secretly signed it during Hurricane Sandy.

“Given Obama's atrocious track record on freedom during his first four years in the White House, here are my top 10 predictions for the next four (if America even lasts that long before ripping itself apart):

#1) Huge expansion of TSA and the surveillance state

Watch for TSA to expand its occupation of America by setting up checkpoints on roadways, sporting events, malls and "surprise" locations. Expect to see TSA agents become even more belligerent and lawless as they ramp up their sexual molestation of innocent victims.

#2) Expansion of secret arrests of American citizens

Obama secretly signed the NDAA, legalizing the secret arrests of U.S. citizens while denying them due process. Obama also authorized secret "kill lists" that claim to authorize the U.S. government to assassinate targeted individuals.

With his re-election in place, expect Obama to start issuing a mass of "kill orders" that will even start targeting political opponents.

#3) Acceleration of national debt blowout and endless fiat currency creation

Under Obama, the national debt experienced a massive blowout where Obama added trillions of dollars to the existing debt: www.USdebtclock.org

Right now, Obama is overseeing a trillion dollars a year in additional debt -- an amount that simply cannot be sustained without running smack into a financial catastrophe. It now appears that financial collapse is going to occur under Obama, not Romney.

#4) Rapid expansion of GMOs and USDA collusion

Monsanto and the biotech corporations have thrived under the Obama administration thanks to USDA collusion and scientific fraud.

Over the next four years, expect GMOs to dominate the U.S. food supply while the Obama White House rejects any effort to try to label GMOs on a national basis.

#5) Increasingly dictatorial government health care

Obamacare will grow like a cancer, pushing Americans into mandatory vaccinations that inject children with mercury, formaldehyde, MSG and aluminum.

Look for the Obama administration to wage even more wars against raw milk freedom, farm freedom and food freedom, all while requiring yet more foods to be pasteurized or fumigated under the guise of "food safety."

#6) Immediate surge in sales of guns and ammo

Obama has promised to try to destroy the Second Amendment and deny Americans the liberty to own firearms. With his re-election, expect to see a massive surge in gun sales as more people attempt to stock up in anticipation of gun bans (or government gun confiscation).

#7) Accelerated erosion of the Bill of Rights and civil liberties

Under Obama, civil rights, human rights and the Bill of Rights will be rapidly eroded. This goes hand in hand with the cancerous growth of government. As government expands its power and confiscates more economic resources, it simultaneously destroys individual liberties and due process.

This isn't to say that Romney would have been any better, of course. Both candidates were philosophically invested in the rapid expansion of Big Government.

#8) Continued destruction and looting of the U.S. economy

Under Obama, the financial looting of the U.S. economy by the global bankster elite will continue. The same would have been true with Romney, by the way.

Under Obama, America's unemployment rate will continue to head skyward, entitlements will be expanded, and the USA will be plunged into a tyrannical welfare state dominated by mindless zombies who have no cognitive grasp of reality.

#9) A "giant sucking sound" of employers leaving America

Ross Perot was right! That "giant sucking sound" is the sound of employers leaving America in droves, hiring offshore workers instead of creating jobs in the USA. And why? Because employers can't afford to pay Obamacare mandates and still stay competitive in the global marketplace.

#10) Stepped-up attacks on veterans and preppers

Returning U.S. veterans will continue to be vilified by the Obama administration, to the point where even more veterans will be arrested as "terrorists" for engaging in fundamental preparedness strategies such as storing food, water, medicine and ammo.

Watch for the liberal media to join the White House in painting veterans as "dangerous" individuals needing psychiatric medications. Never mind the fact that the media owes preppers a huge apology in the aftermath of Hurricane Sandy.

We had better get ready, for we haven't seen anything yet! The American blind public which elected Obama to a second term in office will rue the day they acted like such imbeciles!

Requiem for America

America has changed so much in the past forty years that it is stunning – dazzling – mind-boggling. It is amazing that a failure like Obama could actually get re-elected and be given an opportunity to "Finish the job" after four years of dismal failure.

To the uneducated and ill-informed Zombies, of the new generation, "Finish the Job" means that he will continue to work to improve the economy, create jobs, and bring prosperity. But to those who seek the truth and study the evidence, and who possess critical thinking, the truth is not so sanguine. “Finish the Job” really means to “Fundamentally Transform America”! Obama’s plan has been and will continue to be to diminish and demolish America and American power and to bring us kicking and screaming into the worldwide octopus known as the “New World Order,” as a part of the end-time “Collective” of nations which will array themselves against Christ when He returns!

Obama has pledged to “Finish the job” and this is a threat that is actually applauded by the numbskulls that voted for him, support him and cheer for him. Little do they know that he has an ulterior motive in mind to merge America into a world empire in which its citizens will become virtual “slaves” of the elite governors of the world economy.

The American people have changed. This is no longer the Post World War II generation. That generation is gone and those values are gone. The new generation are children from the 60’s and 70’s who grew up with different values, a hedonistic attitude, smug complacency and lofty pride, who have been deeply influenced by dumbed down education, immorality, sexual looseness, one worldism, multiculturalism, marijuana and drugs, rock music and rap music, and an “anything goes” mentality.

Today’s new generation sees things in a different way. They see abortion as a woman’s “right,” and the death of babies in the womb as inconsequential; they see gay marriage as a matter of “choice,” not a matter of sin and debauchery; they see sexual promiscuity as a right and not a sin; they see government programs such as food stamps as an entitlement, and government assistance as better than hard work and success through independence and personal struggle.

Sadly, today’s new generation are not going to understand the consequences of their actions until it’s too late and the worst part of it is, there is nothing we can do to prevent this! We can preach until the cows come home. We can rage into the night. We can cry aloud, but hardly anybody is listening. The times have changed. Our children have been mesmerized, deceived, and duped. Only a miracle from God can open their eyes and bring them to clear insight, perception, and repentance.

The cause of this mysterious spiritual illness? False preaching from the pulpits of the churches throughout the land!

God declares, “But they [the people] have erred through wine, and through intoxicating drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through intoxicating drink, they are swallowed up by wine, they are out of the way through intoxicating drink, they err in vision, they stumble in judgment” (Isaiah 28:7).

The wine of false teaching had befuddled and stupefied them. They are “reeling drunk and staggering in their cups; prophets and priests are reeling drunk, fuddled with liquor; they reel amid their revelations, they stumble as they give their charges; they vomit foully over the sacred tables, till not a place is clean” (Moffatt, Isa.28:7-8).

The state of the nation is desperate.

Nathan Leal, in "Watchmen's Cry," penned a poem which tells the story.

"The Day America Died"

The people have spoken.
They desired more of the same from their king of an unknown land.
They will get what they wanted but not what they expected!

A king with a mandate. Four more years to finish the task.
Moving "forward" to completion.
He will loot their wallets, raze their cities, and hobble their freedoms.

A destroying wind who takes many prisoners.
Before him, a breath that poisons with lies.
Behind him a wake of destruction and desolation.

His words are the sting of an adder. His smile the leer of a jackal.
The pompous one armed with the keys to the city.
Keys that were forged in the smelter of hell.

The first four years began the siege.
The next four will bring the destruction.
A new army of dark occupation has entered the city.

It was welcomed with applause.
The clapping of the blind ones.
Their coming wounds welcomed with loud cheers.

So through the gates he arrived.
He will loot their riches and strip their wells dry.
He will torment them with a sneer and peel their land with a nod.

America had her turn.
She did not turn.
Now their King from the Land of Ra will have his turn.
-- Nathan Leal, Nov.6, 2012

The prophets have spoken. The Watchmen have watched from the wall. But sadly nobody, it seems, pays much attention.

God declares in Isaiah, that the attitude of the vast majority of people is wrong-headed, bent on pleasure and wrong-doing. "

Newsweek's new post-election cover illustrates the Obama victory and its significance. The World will no doubt cry, "Hail to the King!" America, along with the world, has entered a new phase – a new dimension of reality—a new age. The ancient Mayans were right after all – 2012 is a year of revolutionary change and the beginning of a new era.

Why Obama Won

Pundits and commentators all have their opinions on why Obama won. "It was changing demographics," "the Latino vote," the negative ad campaign of Obama," "Mitt Romney's weak attack ads," etc., etc. However the REAL reason Obama won is revealed in Scripture.

Newsweek calls it "the Obama conquest." But he could not have won, even with the help of Satan the devil, without the permission and will of God Almighty Himself. And God would not have permitted it unless the people were deserving of such a government.

King Nebuchadnezzar of ancient Babylon had a dream where he saw a huge tree cut down, and the king eating grass for seven times, as a symbol of his own being cut down from his office, and eating grass like an ox for seven years (Dan.4:10-16). This dream was to show "that the living may now that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, gives it to whomever He will, and sets over it the lowest [basest] of men" (verse 17).

Daniel was called in to interpret the meaning of the dream and told the king that he would suffer these things "till you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever He chooses" (v.25).

In another dream Nebuchadnezzar dreamed of a towering statue picturing world kingdoms to come upon the earth, beginning with his own (Dan.2:1-18). Daniel was called to interpret this dream, and he told the king, "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are His. And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings . . ." (Dan.2:20-21).

In the book of I Samuel we read of Hannah, who prayed, "The LORD kills and makes alive; He brings down to the grave and brings up. The LORD makes poor and makes rich; He brings low and lifts up. He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the beggar from the ash heap, to set them among princes and make them inherit the throne of glory. For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's, and He has set the world upon them" (I Samuel 2:6-8).

It is God Himself who chooses kings and rulers. He chose Pharaoh to be the king of Egypt during the oppression of the children of Israel. He chose Nebuchadnezzar to attack and conquer Jerusalem and to take His people captive because of their sins. He chose the Assyrians to take the northern kingdom of Israel captive in 718-21 B.C. He rules in the kingdoms of men!

Therefore, it is God who chose Barack Obama to be re-elected as president of the United States of America!

As the apostle Paul wrote, “Let every soul be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist are appointed by God. Therefore whoever resists the authority resists the ordinance of God, and those who resist will bring judgment on themselves” (Rom.13:1-2).

Obama’s “conquest” has just begun. Republicans are shell-shocked and routed and in total disarray. The restraining forces have been removed. The end-time “Beast” has begun his ascent.

Although many Americans may not like it, we are suffering Obama pains and pangs because of our national ill will, sins, defiance in the face of God, and our turning our back on Him and His laws. Unless and until we change our attitude and our direction, our values and our desires, we will reap what we sow, and calamity and catastrophe are in the ominous future.

The time has come to repent, and to seek God, in earnest, if so be that He will forgive us, have compassion on us, and so we may survive and come through the onrushing crisis descending like a darkening cloud upon the entire world.

Counting Down – Daniel’s 70 Weeks and the End of the World

How much longer do we have until the coming of the long-awaited Messiah? World troubles are exploding, governments are imploding, and men and women are frightened and terrified. Is nuclear Armageddon staring us in the face? What is the time-line till the end of time? How much longer must we wait?

William F. Dankenbring

In the prophecy of Zechariah we read: “Lo, a day of the LORD is coming when your spoil shall be divided in your very midst! For I will gather ALL NATIONS TO JERUSALEM for WAR: The city shall be captured, the houses plundered, and the women violated; and a part of the city shall go into exile. But the rest of the population shall not be uprooted from the city.

“Then the LORD will come forth [from heaven, where He has gone!] and make war on those nations as He is wont to make war on a day of battle. On that day He will set His feet on the Mount of Olives, near Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives shall split across from east to west . . . And the LORD my God, with all the holy beings, will come to you” (Zech. 14:1-5).

Notice! Here we find that God Himself – the Messiah – will STAND ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES – the very same mountain from which Jesus Christ ascended to heaven (Acts 1:12) – and the same mountain to which the angels told the disciples that He would return (v.11). This prophecy of Zechariah, therefore, is a vision of the SECOND COMING of the Messiah, Jesus Christ, when He will fight against the nations who have once again conquered Jerusalem.

How much longer must we wait until this prophecy is fulfilled?

The Wicked Prince

The leader of the army which will come against Jerusalem will this time not be Titus or Vespasian, but the one foretold by Daniel who would arise in the END TIME, one who “will be extraordinarily destructive; he will prosper in what he does, and destroy the mighty and the people of holy ones. By his cunning, he will use deceit successfully.

He will make great plans, will destroy many, taking them unawares, and will rise up against the CHIEF OF CHIEFS [the Messiah Himself!], but will be broken, not by [human] hands” (Daniel 8:24-25).

This wicked king is also described in Daniel 7. We read: “He will speak words against the Most High, and will harass the holy ones of the Most High. He will think of changing times and laws, and they will be delivered into his power for a time, times, and half a times [three and one half years]” (Dan.7:25).

The book of Revelation in the New Testament describes this wicked tyrant as a “beast.” The apostle John writes: “The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise his authority for FORTY-TWO MONTHS [three and one half years!]. . . . He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them” (Rev.13:5-7, NIV).

This “beast,” along with all the kings of the earth, will gather at Jerusalem to fight against Christ at His return, at “the battle on the great day of God Almighty” (Rev.16:14). John says, “They will make war against the Lamb, but the Lamb will overcome them because he is Lord of lords and King of kings—and with him will be his called, chosen and faithful followers” (Rev. 17:14).

John goes on:

“I saw heaven standing open and there before me was a white horse, whose rider is called Faithful and True. With justice he judges and makes war. His eyes are like blazing fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has a name written on him that no one knows but he himself. He is dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and his name is the Word of God [compare John 1:1-2,14]. The armies of heaven were following him, riding on white horses and dressed in fine linen, white and clean. out of his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations. He will rule them with an iron scepter. He treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God Almighty. On his robe and on his thigh he has this name written: KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS. . .

“Then I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. But the beast was captured, and with him the false prophet . . . The two of them were thrown alive into the fiery lake of burning sulphur” (Rev.19:11-20).

Thus the army of this world ruling “beast” will be destroyed by Christ, and the beast himself slain in the lake of fire. But when will these things come to pass?

Daniel 9 Revealed

A mysterious prophecy in Daniel 9 may well reveal the intriguing, incredible answer! Let’s take a new look at this mysterious cipher and its interpretation:

“SEVENTY WEEKS are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish [margin, to restrain] the transgression, and to make an end [margin, to seal up] of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

“Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and rebuild Jerusalem [margin, to build again Jerusalem] unto Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall [margin, breach, or ditch], in troublous times.

“And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be CUT OFF, but not for himself [margin, and shall have nothing]: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined [margin, it shall be cut off by desolations].

“And he shall confirm the covenant with many for ONE WEEK: and in the midst of the WEEK he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations [margin, and upon the battlements shall be the idols of the desolater], he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate [margin, desolater]” (Dan.9:24-27).

What a strange prophecy! It outlines strange events to occur in and around Jerusalem, till the coming of the Messiah and the end of the age. What are these mysterious “seventy weeks”?

My article, “Daniel’s 70 Weeks Prophecy Proves Christ Is the Messiah!” details the first mind-boggling fulfillment of this ancient prophecy. It shows that counting from the famous decree of king Artaxerxes in 457 B.C., using a “day for a year,” the 69 weeks of the prophecy would end in 27 A.D. – the very year Jesus Christ began His ministry in ancient Judea! Then He was “cut off,” dying for our sins on the cross. Afterwards, 40 years later, the Roman prince Titus destroyed Jerusalem and the holy place, just as Daniel foretold.

But amazing and stunning as it may sound, there is another, special END TIME fulfillment of this ancient prophecy!

A New Analysis of Daniel 9

This is exciting – stunning. God has revealed a WHOLE NEW END-TIME DIMENSION to this remarkable ancient prophecy!

Let’s notice carefully!

The Hebrew word for “weeks” in the prophecy of the 70 weeks, is the word shavuot. It also designates the “Feast of Shavuot,” or “Feast of Weeks,” which follows Passover, fifty days later. We are told to “count seven weeks,” till the 50th day, from the day after Passover, counting beginning Nisan 16, and the fiftieth day is “Shavuot,” the Feast of Weeks. Its name is derived from the counting of seven weeks from Passover, thus, “Feast of Weeks.”

The Hebrew word Shavuot, therefore, also refers to an ANNUAL HOLY DAY, which is counted, and looked forward to with great expectancy and joy. Anciently, it represented the day of the covenant God made with Israel on that day at Mount Sinai.

The Hebrew word “Shavuot” literally means #7620, shavua, (plural Shavuot), and means “literally sevened, i.e. a week.” It also means, #7621, “something sworn, an oath.” It was at Mount Sinai, after a period of seven sevens, that the Feast of Shavuot was arrived at, and it was the day God and Israel swore an “Oath” – a Covenant of Marriage.

So literally, the prophecy of Daniel is the prophecy of “seventy sevens” or even “seventy Shavuot” – that is, Festivals of Shavuot. If we look at it that way, then seventy such Festivals would equal 70 years, as the Feast occurs once a year!

Now, let’s take a fresh look at this intriguing prophecy.

“Seventy weeks [Shavuot] are determined.” Seventy Feasts of Shavuot would be 70 years!

“. . . for your people and for your holy city, to finish the transgression . . . to bring in everlasting righteousness, to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the Most Holy.” (Dan.9:24).

So this prophecy says (also) that there will be seventy years to the end point – the coming of the Messiah and the Kingdom of God, ending the period of man’s transgression on the earth.

“Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the command to restore and build Jerusalem until Messiah the Prince . . . (v.25). The United Nations voted to partition Israel in November 1947, and Israel became a state May 14, 1948. Both of these occurred during the Hebrew year 5708. This would be the date for the restoration of Israel and Jerusalem.

“There shall be seven weeks and sixty two weeks; the street shall be built again, and the wall [of protection], even in troublesome times” (v.25b). Seven “weeks” also means “seven Shavuot,” or Feasts of Weeks – meaning “seven years.” Sixty two “weeks” likewise can mean 62 years. So we have a period of seven years, and a period of 62 years. From Israel’s inception in 1948, there was war. The nation was born in a bloodbath as surrounding Arab nations immediately attacked.

In May, 1948, Israel had to fight the surrounding Arab nations which invaded her territory, and the following years were “troublesome times.” War again broke out in 1956, and in 1967 the “Six Day War” was fought, and the “Yom Kippur War” in 1973, then the invasion of Lebanon in 1982, and the subsequent Palestinian intifada in 1987, lasting to the present time.

“And after the sixty two weeks Messiah [anointed one] shall be cut off . . .”

62 “weeks” is also 62 Shavuot = 62 Shavuot or “years.” From 1948, counting 62 years, brings us to 2010 A.D.

$$\begin{array}{r} 1948 \\ +62 \\ \hline 2010 \text{ A.D.} \end{array}$$

After these “62” Shavuot, ending in 2010, the “anointed one” – a designation for the anointed people of God, Israel – shall be “cut off” – that is, begin to be “cut off” as a nation, as a people, and destroyed.

What happened in 2010? The Muslim Barack Hussein Obama became president of the world’s last remaining superpower in 2009 – the United States – and by 2010 he began compromising Israel’s security, independence, and forcefully turning against America’s only true ally in the Middle East. Currying favor with the Arab oil producing nations, he has begun cutting Israel off at the knees. Denying them missiles and bunker-busting bombs. Threatening them with sanctions, and trade embargoes. Treating their diplomats and Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu with contempt, hostility, scorn and derision.

Israel has begun to be “cut off” – the anointed people are being persecuted by their supposed sole remaining “friend” and ally in all the world.

“And the people [army] of the prince who is to come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary. The end of it shall be with a flood, and till the end of the war desolations are determined. . .” (verse 26).

Israel will be invaded! Jerusalem destroyed! Jihad will reign! Desolations and destruction will rage and follow till the end of the period of conflict and warfare.

“Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week; but in the middle of the week he shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering” (v.27).

The final “week” – THE FINAL SEVEN YEARS – will be from 2010 to 2017 – the last week of years! In the middle of this final period Temple sacrifices and prayers will cease. The dark prince will force them to stop.

“And on the wing of ABOMINATIONS shall be one who makes desolate, even until the consummation, which is determined, is poured out on the desolate [or, desolator, marginal reading]” (verse 27b).

This constitutes a shocking, incredible new view of Daniel’s 70 weeks prophecy, as it applies to the END TIME, – a pattern of fulfillment beginning in 1948 and ending 70 years later – in 2017-2018 A.D.

Could this be the final countdown to the coming of the Messiah?

Note that this incredible prophecy has many levels. It correctly predicted the first coming of the Messiah, as the lamb of God who was sacrificed, to the very year He began His ministry – 27 A.D.!

This mind-boggling prophecy also appears to predict the exact year of the SECOND and FINAL coming of the Messiah – 2017-2018 A.D.!!!

Since it predicted the first coming of Messiah to the precise year, then it should logically predict the second coming to the precise year as well!

The End of the Age

Now notice! The “prince” causes sacrifice and offering to cease in the “MIDST” of the final week – or middle. Half-way through a week is 3 1/2 days. Since this is a prophetic week, it refers to 3 1/2 years. Thus the prince and his forces will “rule” over the holy city and its environs for the last 3 1/2 years of this age. This coincides with the 42 months mentioned in Revelation 11 – for 42 months equals 3 1/2 years!

This desecration of the newly established Temple or Sanctuary is also mentioned in other prophecies in Daniel. Notice! Daniel 11 describes what will happen this way:

“Ships from Kittim will come against him. He will be checked, and will turn back, RAGING AGAINST THE HOLY COVENANT. Having done his pleasure, he will then attend to THOSE WHO FORSAKE THE HOLY COVENANT [apostate, renegade Jewish and Christian leaders]. Forces will be levied by him; they will DESECRATE THE TEMPLE, the fortress; they will ABOLISH THE REGULAR OFFERING and set up the appalling abomination [probably either a statue or the ‘prince’ himself]. He will flatter with smooth words those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people devoted to their God will stand firm. The knowledgeable among the people will make the many understand; and for a while they shall fall by sword and flame, suffer captivity and spoilation. In defeat, they will receive a little help, and many will join them insincerely. Some of the knowledgeable will fall, that they may be refined and purged and whitened until the TIME OF THE END, for an interval still remains until the appointed time” (Dan. 11:30-35).

This evil end-time tyrant, the head of a coming “New International Order” or modern version of the ancient “Holy Roman Empire” of the Middle Ages, will “do as he pleases; he will exalt and magnify himself [he has a terrible case of inflated vanity and supreme egotism!] above every god, and he will speak awful things against the God of gods. He will prosper until wrath is spent, and what has been decreed is accomplished” (Dan. 11:36). Do we know any world leader today who is so wrapped up in himself, cloaked in vanity and supreme ego?

This flattering, insincere, very savvy “king,” this end-time political figure, is also referred to in Daniel’s prophecy as a “contemptible man” (Dan. 11:21), or “a vile person” (NKJV), a “despicable creature” (Moffatt translation), who will “come in unawares and seize the kingdom through trickery” – “intrigue” (NKJV) – he will gain the leadership of the coming New World Order by cunning wisdom and sleight-of-hand, using deceitful, underhanded and devious means (Dan. 11:21). Moffatt translates, “by means of specious promises he shall pervert those who bring guilt upon the nation” (Dan.11:32).

Does this not sound like the way Barack Obama became president of the United States? Trickery, deceit, blandishments, smiles, charisma, promises, chants, slogans, songs, spell-binding mass hypnotism, illusion, magic, perversion, fraud! Born in Kenya, yet claiming birth in Hawaii, despite the available evidence. The world has been deceived. Satan has inspired his servant and prophecy will show the conclusion of the diabolical hoax.

Our present world is an age of savage and vehement apostasy. It will be unmatched in all the annals of the history of mankind. Blood will flow in rivers. Billions will die in thermonuclear and chemical-biological warfare that is soon to rise up in our faces.

Moffatt translates Daniel 9:27 as follows: “For a week of years the main body of the people shall cease to practice their religion; for half of that time sacrifice and offering shall cease, and instead of this there shall be an appalling abomination, till finally the appointed doom falls upon the sacrilegious abomination.”

The Jubilee Cycle Also

Another incredible prophecy ending in 2017 has to do with the Jubilee cycles which God appointed for Israel. They were to count seven Sabbatical year cycles, each cycle a 7 year period ending in a land Sabbath, a year of rest for the land (Lev.25). Seven such cycles would be 7 x 7 or 49 years, and the 50th year was the Jubilee year.

Ancient Judah was taken into captivity by king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon in 604 B.C. They began to suffer “seven times” punishment at that time. As a “time” equals a year, and a prophetic year is 360 days, and each day equals a “year” in fulfillment, then this punishment lasted 2,520 years.

Let’s apply this principle to the “seven times” punishment God said He would pour out on his people if they broke His covenant (Lev.26). Thus $360 \times 7 = 2520$ years!

If we count 2520 years from 604 B.C., we come to 1917 A.D.!

$$\begin{array}{r}
 2520 \text{ years} \\
 \underline{-604 \text{ B.C.}} \\
 1916 \\
 \underline{+1 \text{ (no year zero)}} \\
 1917 \text{ A.D.}
 \end{array}$$

What happened in 1917 A.D. that relates to the kingdom of Judah?

1917 A.D. is the very year General Allenby conquered Jerusalem and wrested control of Palestine from the Turkish Empire during World War I! In that very same year, the Balfour Declaration in Great Britain paved the way for the return of the Jewish people to their homeland in the Middle East.

Arthur James Balfour (1848-1930) served as the Prime Minister of Great Britain from 1902 to 1905 and was a leader of the Conservative Party for over 20 years. The Balfour Declaration issued in 1917 bore his name. He served as Foreign Secretary in the coalition war cabinet of David Lloyd George from 1916 to 1919.

The Balfour Declaration dealt with the establishment of a Jewish homeland in Palestine. The Declaration read as follows:

“His Majesty’s Government view with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of this object, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of existing non-Jewish communities in Palestine, or the rights and political status enjoyed by Jews in any other country.”

In 1922 the League of Nations endorsed the declaration and gave Great Britain a mandate to rule over Palestine. The British mandate ended in 1947. In 1948, the Jews in the territory mandated to Britain established the independent state of Israel.

1917 was the pivotal year. Notice! Once again, a very significant fulfillment of prophecy occurred, 2,520 years after the original nation of Judah was taken into captivity by Babylon in 604 B.C. This amazing prophetic fulfillment, like that for the kingdom of Israel, clearly validates the prophetic principle of 2,520 years of punishment on God’s people for disobedience – for both Israelites and Jews.

Then, exactly 50 years later, one Jubilee cycle, the Six Day War broke out in 1967 – and once again God intervened mightily to save His people!

Since the punishment on Judah was completed in 1917, it makes sense that we should begin once again counting “Jubilee cycles” from that date. If we do so, several interesting things develop. Notice!

$$\begin{array}{r} 1917/18 \\ +50 \\ \hline 1967/68 \end{array}$$

1967 could also be considered the end of one Jubilee cycle beginning in 1917 when Israel was “restored” in Palestine by the Balfour Declaration! It is also the fateful year of the miraculous “Six Day War” in which Israel defeated the surrounding Arab states in a blitzkrieg type war in a mere six days!

Is this astonishing victory for Israel in 1967 significant? A nation of 2 1/2 million put to rout the armies and military forces of Arab nations with a combined population of over 140 million. This was “a staggering achievement,” in the words of Winston S. and Randolph S. Churchill. Colin Legum in The Observer called the Israeli victory “a miracle of arms” (ibid.,p.194-195). He added that one of Israel's leading soldier-politicians remarked:

“The only analogy I can think of is if Britain had found herself in occupation of Berlin just three days after Dunkirk. The suddenness of the transformation from a situation of acute danger to unparalleled victory is too much for any people to absorb. It will take time to get over it” (ibid.).

On June 27 three laws were passed through the Knesset annexing the Old City of Jerusalem and reuniting it with the New City on the next day. Was this amazing Six Day War significant in relation to Biblical prophecy? Of course it was!

But now let's continue the ‘Jubilee cycle.’ The next 50 years ends in the year 2017.

$$\begin{array}{r} 1967/68 \\ +50 \\ \hline 2017/18 \end{array}$$

Notice! This date, 2017, is the same date as the 70 years beginning in 1947, the year of the UN mandate to divide Palestine into a Jewish and an Arab state! By this reckoning, the year 2016-2017 is a JUBILEE YEAR! Could this be the “Jubilee year” on which the Messiah will return in glory?

The apostle Peter thundered that the Messiah would return at “the times of restitution of all things” (Acts 3:21) – and the Jubilee year was the year of “restitution of all things,” the year when each person would return to his possession, a holy year, a year “to proclaim liberty throughout all the land to all its inhabitants” (Leviticus 25:9-13).

2017 is a unique “Jubilee year” counted from 1917, when God restored His people to the Middle East when General Allenby conquered Jerusalem and the Turkish Empire, and when the Balfour Declaration opened the doors and encouraged Jewish emigration to their original homeland. Could all this be mere coincidence? Or is GOD Almighty in control of the times and the seasons of Biblical prophecy and their fulfillment?

The Last Generation

In Matthew 24:32-33, Jesus Christ said to His disciples, “Now learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. So you also, when you see these things, know that it [His coming] is near—at the doors!”

He declared, “Assuredly I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place” (verse 34).

What is this fig tree? The fig tree is a type of Israel and the Jewish people. We read in Hosea 9:7-10, “The days of punishment have come; the days of recompense have come. Israel knows! The prophet is a fool. The spiritual man is insane, because of the greatness of your iniquity and great enmity. The watchman of Ephraim is with my God; but the prophet [ministers in general] is a fowler’s snare in all his ways—Enmity in the house of his God. They are deeply corrupted, as in the days of Gibeah [when homosexuality was rampant – see Judges 19:22]” (Hosea 9:7-9).

Hosea continues, ““I saw your fathers as the first fruits on the fig tree in its first season. But they went to Baal Peor, and separated themselves to that shame [disgusting, shameful idol]; they became an abomination like the thing they loved” (verse 10).

End-time Israel, America and Great Britain, and the Jews also, are spiritually contaminated by SIN – wickedness – gross sensual immorality, licentiousness and the whole gamut of wickedness!

Yeshua says to His disciples, “Look at the fig tree and all the trees. When they are already budding you see and know for yourselves that summer is now near. Assuredly I say to you, THIS GENERATION [THAT SEES ISRAEL BUDDING LIKE A FIG TREE] WILL BY NO MEANS PASS AWAY TILL ALL THINGS TAKE PLACE” (Luke 21:29-33).

Yeshua says “the fig tree,” designating a particular fig tree, beginning to put out its leaves, and when we see it we are to know that it is the time of the last generation.

The nation of Israel was “born” in 1947-1948 and began to put out its leaves and became a great nation in the Middle East and is today an outstanding leader in commerce, technology and science. We are living in that generation!

But how long is a “generation”?

Moses wrote in the Psalms, “For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past, and like a watch in the night” (Psalm 90:4). Verse 10 goes on, “the days of our lives are seventy years.”

The average generation is 70 years. Counting from 1947-1948, the year of the birth of Israel, 70 years, brings us to 2017-2018!

According to the words of Christ, ALL THESE THINGS WILL BE FINISHED, COMPLETED, BEFORE THE END of THIS GENERATION! If the final generation began when Israel became a nation, in 1948, then 70 years from then would be 2018!

Although many people and past generations thought Christ would come in their time, and they were wrong, this time all the evidence seems to converge on THIS VERY DECADE!

Prophecy Being Fulfilled!

The prophecy of Daniel 9 and the “seventy weeks” has been fulfilled, to the very year, thus far. There is no reason to think that the remainder of this amazing, crucial, pivotal prophecy will not also be fulfilled to the very year! And the events of the last “week” of years before the return of the Messiah are laid out for us – including a period of apostasy, invasion, overthrow, and 3 1/2 years of terrible persecution and travail among the nations under the dictatorial fist of a tyrannical world despot!

How does this knowledge relate to the prophecy in Daniel 9? It fits like hand in glove. This would imply that the “final week” or seven years of Daniel’s “70 Shavuot” or “weeks” prophecy” may have actually begun in the year 2011!

This final period of time corresponds to the “crisis at the close” spoken of by Daniel – a “time of trouble” such as has never been upon the earth in all its gory, bloody, sanguinary, cruel history (Daniel 12:1). Daniel was told, “And now, O Daniel, keep all this a closed secret and keep the book shut as a secret, till the crisis at the END; err then many shall give way and trouble shall be multiplied on earth” (Dan.12:4, Moffatt).

The revelation was to be hidden away; its meaning concealed, till the end times. Daniel, fascinated, was told, “Ask no more, Daniel, for the revelation is to be kept secret and closed, TILL THE CRISIS AT THE CLOSE. Many shall purify themselves and make themselves white and be refined, but the evil shall do evilly; none of the evil shall understand things, it is the pious who understand” (Dan.12:10, Moffatt).

No man knows the exact day or hour of the Messiah’s coming. Yeshua declared, “Now no one knows anything of that day or hour, not even the angels in heaven, not even the Son, but only the Father” (Mark 13:32).

In fact, Messiah went on, “Take care, keep awake and pray; you never know the time. It is like a man leaving his house to go abroad; he puts his servants in charge, each with his work to do, and he orders the porter to keep watch. Watch then, for you never know when the Lord of the House will come, in the late evening or at midnight or at cock-crow or in the morning. Watch, in case he comes suddenly and finds you asleep. Watch: I say it to you, and I say it to all” (Mark 13:33-37).

The stage is being set. The trumpeters are beginning to blow. The orchestra is tuning up. The final drama is about to begin.

Are you ready for End of the Age, the coming cataclysm, the apocalypse, Armageddon and the coming of the Messiah? Are you getting ready?

Ambassador Stevens' Death and a Coming Military Coup?

The United States military is in a state of war in the Middle East and President Obama has committed the unprecedented action of firing two senior level command officers for what would comprise the leadership of an attack force against Iran and potentially China and Russia. This action is so unprecedented, so reckless, that it is difficult to comprehend. Please allow me to offer a sports analogy in order to explain the magnitude of this action. Imagine that your favorite football team was on the eve of the Super Bowl and the owner of your team fired both the head coach and the quarterback the night before the big game. Wouldn't this throw your team into a state of disarray? Of course it would, and subsequently your team would face annihilation. This is exactly the case with our forces in the Middle East after the firing of these two military leaders at this critical point in time. The deposing and subsequent arrest of AFRI-COM commanding officer, General Carter Ham, and the firing of Carrier task force commander, Admiral Charles M. Gayouette is an irresponsible move by the Obama administration and has left a leadership void in the Middle East that has needlessly put the lives of our military at risk. The positions held by Ham and Gayouette are so powerful and so sensitive, their replacements will require approval from the Senate. Why would Obama engage in such a reckless act when the country is so close to war? Very simply, both men were jointly attempting to rescue Ambassador Stevens and his bodyguards, despite being told to stand down by Defense Secretary, Leon Panetta. There is now proof that Obama was warned in advance of the coming attack in which Stevens begged for more protection and his impassioned plea was denied by Clinton.

As Stevens was begging for help after the attack had begun, General Ham had activated a special forces team within minutes of learning that the embassy, which was really a CIA safe house, was under attack. When General Ham received his "stand down" orders from Obama, he made plans to go ahead with the rescue and was arrested within minutes of contravening the order by his second in command, General Rodriguez. Admiral Gayouette, the commander of Carrier Strike Group Three, was preparing to provide intelligence and air cover for General Hamm's rescue team in violation of his standing orders and he was promptly relieved of command for allegations of inappropriate leadership judgment."

General Ham had been in command of the initial 2011 US-NATO military intervention in Libya. And as we can, in part, read from US military insider accounts of this growing internal conflict between the White House and US Military leaders. There appears to be a growing body of evidence that the military is rebelling against this rogue President. I have come to realize that if this President is re-elected, Obama may face a well-deserved coup from his senior military leaders.

It is abundantly clear that had Obama been concerned for saving the lives of the four murdered Americans, American forces could have stopped the mortar fire that eventually killed Ambassador Stevens. However, Panetta and Obama blocked any rescue attempt. In legal parlance, Obama, Panetta and Clinton are, at minimum, accomplices to murder. At maximum these three rogue government officials are co-conspirators to first degree murder and now they have sacked two senior command military leaders to cover their complicity in an act of treason. I feel like I am watching an episode of the former popular television show, 24, as we are presently engaged in a plot that scarcely anyone would have believed if it had aired on television and not occurred in real life.

Even though the corporate controlled media refuses to cover the events in Benghazi, Representative Buck McKeon wrote a letter to Obama in which he boldly stated "As we are painfully aware, despite the fact that the military had resources in the area, the military did not deploy any assets to secure U.S. personnel in Benghazi during the hours the consulate and the annex were under attack. I find it implausible that the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Commander of U.S. Africa Command (author's note: General Hamm) and the Commander of U.S. European Command would have ignored a direct order from the Commander in Chief." There's growing evidence that US agents in Libya were at least aware of weapons and militants moving across the border. The ties between murdered U.S. Ambassador Chris Stevens and jihadist Syrian rebels are becoming more clear as it is now known that Chris Stevens was an arms dealer for the CIA and he brokered arms deals with Al-Qaeda and their affiliate rebels in both Libya and Syria. Can anyone imagine the political fallout to this President if word of this had ever leaked out? Stevens was the link between the CIA and al-Qaeda. With Stevens out of the way, the trail could grow cold and the American public would be none the wiser. This is why a rescue attempt was not permitted and this explains why two senior level officials were sacked for trying to do so.

Adding fuel to this conspiratorial fire is the fact that the mainstream media refuses to cover these points despite overwhelming evidence. My advice to the American public is burn down the phone lines of the corporate controlled media and tell them to legitimately cover the events at Benghazi.

The murder of Stevens and his team at Benghazi could be a seminal moment in American history. We know from last year that al-Qaeda forces, fighting on the side of NATO in Libya, obtained 20,000 hand-held stinger missiles. This means that the Obama administration has allowed al-Qaeda to be armed to the teeth including 20,000 stinger missiles in which only one is needed to take down an American airliner. To cover their tracks, the Obama administration left Chris Stevens and his bodyguards defenseless as they were killed by the very terrorists who this administration armed. Additionally, the Obama administration has allowed al-Qaeda to be armed to the teeth including 20,000 stinger missiles in which only one is needed to take down an American airliner.

Additionally, there is a growing movement in the military to rebel against this administration. Panetta was shot at by American troops while landing in Afghanistan. The former commander of our forces in Afghanistan, General McChrystal, was sacked for his "disrespectful comments" about the Commander-in-Chief. And now we witness two senior level command officers fired by Obama because they would not be complicit in the murder of Ambassador Stevens.

As the facts continue to come out, it is clear that Obama, Panetta and Clinton are accessories to murder. Some feel that they are the masterminds behind the murder of Stevens. All three individuals should be charged with treason, conspiracy to commit treason, first degree murder and for violating Trading with the Enemies Act. If any American airliners are brought down as a result of their heinous actions, they should face additional charges of accessories to murder and depraved indifference. General Rodriguez, who arrested General Hamm, for attempting to launch a rescue effort, should be charged with aiding and abetting murder and treason. Chris Stevens was certainly no angel. However, he did not deserve to be sacrificed in order that Obama could cover his criminal tracks.

Whether we are talking about Border Patrol agent, Brian Terry, murdered by drug cartel members who were supplied with weapons by Obama's illegal Fast and Furious gun running program, or we are speaking of Chris Stevens, murdered by Obama related forces to cover his illegal gun running tracks, how can anyone who works for this administration and feel comfortable that the this President has their back as they risk their lives doing what their country asks them to do?

If the American voters are unable to stop the bleeding and remove this lunatic of a President, while overcoming the George Soros voting machines in which the votes will be counted in Spain, then perhaps the military will provide the justice that a growing number of Americans are clamoring for. (Dave Hodges, The Common Sense Show, Nov.4, 2012).

Obama Won, America Lost

The new America has been built on the backs of takers, that is, those who take the entitlements but, do not produce. The Takers won tonight. Obama cunningly promised more entitlements to an entitlement driven society, and, like a moth to the light they embraced his offer and sold their votes (souls) for more stuff. As the takers sold their votes they empowered the government, so now Washington can take control of their lives as long as the gravy train keeps rolling.

However, the Takers didn't act alone. The question is: if the republicans cannot beat Obama after all of his crimes, fraud and treachery then the Republican Party does not deserve to exist and must be dealt with.

The Tea Party is now more important than ever before. We told the Republicans they should be more confrontational, more direct and display Obama's record for the world to see, but their arrogance blinded them to the truth.

The success of the Tea Party is the only shining light in the conservative movement and the Republican Party took full advantage of our work as well as the sweat of our backs, and yet, the blind Pharisees refused our wise counsel. This leaves us with little choice but to suck it up, get tougher and protect our American heritage with all we've got.

Mr. Romney worked hard, but played it safe, stayed in the safe waters and refused to expose 'America's Fraud President' and what was the result? Mr. Romney lost, and the Republican Party failed America.

However, the greater issue is far beyond Obama or Romney. This Presidential race clearly shows America is a divided nation looking for a strong no-nonsense leadership with conservative values. The Tea Party is the last remaining stronghold of Conservative values in America, we must not stop!

Can It Be All Just "Coincidence"?

(Oct. 1, 2012) — As I noted in the introduction to my book, The Obama Timeline, a jury at a murder trial will often find the accumulated circumstantial evidence so overwhelming that a guilty verdict is obvious—even though there may be no witness to the crime. "The jurors in the Scott Peterson trial believed the collection of evidence more than they believed Scott Peterson. Among other things, the jury thought that being arrested with $15,000 in cash, recently-dyed hair, a newly-grown goatee, four cell phones, camping equipment, a map to a new girlfriend's house, a gun, and his brother's driver's license certainly did not paint a picture of a grieving husband who had nothing to do with his pregnant wife's disappearance and murder."

In the four years I have been gathering information about—and evidence against—Barack Hussein Obama, I have encountered hundreds of coincidences that strike me as amazing. None of those coincidences, by themselves, may mean much. But taken as a whole it is almost impossible to believe they were all the result of chance.

Consider the Obama-related coincidences:

Obama just happened to know 60s far-left radical revolutionary William Ayers, whose father just happened to be Thomas Ayers, who just happened to be a close friend of Obama's communist mentor Frank Marshall Davis, who just happened to work at the communist-sympathizing Chicago Defender with Vernon Jarrett, who just happened to later become the father-in-law of Iranian-born leftist Valerie Jarrett, who Obama just happened to choose as his closest White House advisor, and who just happened to have been CEO of Habitat Company, which just happened to manage public housing in Chicago, which just happened to get millions of dollars from the Illinois state legislature, and which just happened not to properly maintain the housing—which eventually just happened to require demolition.

Valerie Jarrett also just happened to work for the city of Chicago, and just happened to hire Michelle LaVaughan Robinson (later Obama), who just happened to have worked at the Sidley Austin law firm, where former fugitive from the FBI Bernardine Dohrn also just happened to work, and where Barack Obama just happened to get a summer job.

Bernardine Dohrn just happened to be married to William Ayers, with whom she just happened to have hidden from the FBI at a San Francisco marina, along with Donald Warden, who just happened to change his name to Khalid al-Mansour, and Warden/al-Mansour just happened to be a mentor of Black Panther Party founders Huey Newton and Bobby Seale and a close associate of Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan, and al-Mansour just happened to be financial adviser to a Saudi Prince, who just happened to donate cash to Harvard, for which Obama just happened to get a critical letter of recommendation from Percy Sutton, who just happened to have been the attorney for Malcolm X, who just happened to know Kenyan politician Tom Mboya, who just happened to be a close friend of Barack Hussein Obama, Sr., who just happened to meet Malcolm X when he traveled to Kenya.

Obama, Sr. just happened to have his education at the University of Hawaii paid for by the Laubach Literacy Institute, which just happened to have been supported by Elizabeth Mooney Kirk, who just happened to be a friend of Malcolm X, who just happened to have been associated with the Nation of Islam, which was later headed by Louis Farrakhan, who just happens to live very close to Obama's Chicago mansion, which also just happens to be located very close to the residence of William Ayers and Bernardine Dohrn, who just happen to have been occasional baby-sitters for Malia and Natasha Obama, whose parents just happen not to mind exposing their daughters to bomb-making communists.

After attending Occidental College and Columbia University, where he just happened to have foreign Muslim roommates, Obama moved to Chicago to work for the Industrial Areas Foundation, an organization that just happened to have been founded by Marxist and radical agitator Saul "the Red" Alinsky, author of Rules for Radicals, who just happened to be the topic of Hillary Rodham Clinton's thesis at Wellesley College, and Obama's $25,000 salary at IAF just happened to be funded by a grant from the Woods Fund, which was founded by the Woods family, whose Sahara Coal company just happened to provide coal to Commonwealth Edison, whose CEO just happened to be Thomas Ayers, whose son William Ayers just happened to serve on the board of the Woods Fund, along with Obama.

Obama also worked on voter registration drives in Chicago in the 1980s and just happened to work with leftist political groups like the Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) and Socialist International (SI), through which Obama met Carl Davidson, who just happened to travel to Cuba during the Vietnam War to sabotage the U.S. war effort, and who just happened to be a former member of the SDS and a member of the Committees of Correspondence for Democracy and Socialism, which just happened to sponsor a 2002 anti-war rally at which Obama spoke, and which just happened to have been organized by Marilyn Katz, a former SDS activist and later public relations consultant who just happened to be a long-time friend of Obama's political hatchet man, David Axelrod.

Obama joined Trinity United Church of Christ (TUCC), whose pastor was Reverend Jeremiah Wright, a fiery orator who just happened to preach Marxism and Black Liberation Theology and who delivered anti-white, anti-Jew, and anti-American sermons, which Obama just happened never to hear because he just happened to miss church only on the days when Wright was at his "most enthusiastic," and Obama just happened never to notice that Oprah Winfrey left the church because it was too radical, and just happened never to notice that the church gave the vile anti-Semitic Nation of Islam leader Louis Farrakhan a lifetime achievement award. Although no one had ever heard of him at the time, Obama just happened to receive an impossible-to-believe $125,000 advance to write a book about race relations, which he just happened to fail to write while using the cash to vacation in Bali with his wife Michelle, and despite his record of non-writing he just happened to receive a second advance, for $40,000, from another publisher, and he eventually completed a manuscript called Dreams From My Father, which just happened to strongly reflect the writing style of William Ayers, who just happened to trample on an American flag for the cover photograph of the popular Chicago magazine, which Obama just happened never to see even though it appeared on newsstands throughout the city.

Obama was hired by the law firm Miner, Banhill and Galland, which just happened to specialize in negotiating state government contracts to develop low-income housing, and which just happened to deal with now-imprisoned Tony Rezko and his firm Rezar, and with slumlord Valerie Jarrett, and the law firm's Judson Miner just happened to have been a classmate of Bernardine Dohrn, wife of William Ayers.

In 1994 Obama represented ACORN and another plaintiff in a lawsuit against Citibank for denying mortgages to blacks (Buycks-Roberson v. Citibank Federal Savings Bank), and the lawsuit just happened to result in banks being blackmailed into approving subprime loans for poor credit risks, a trend which just happened to spread nationwide, and which just happened to lead to the collapse of the housing bubble, which just happened to help Obama defeat John McCain in the 2008 presidential election.

In 1996 Obama ran for the Illinois State Senate and joined the "New Party," which just happened to promote Marxism, and Obama was supported by Dr. Quentin Yong, a socialist who just happened to support a government takeover of the health care system.

In late 1999 Obama purportedly engaged in homosexual activities and cocaine-snorting in the back of a limousine with a man named Larry Sinclair, who claims he was contacted in late 2007 by Donald Young, who just happened to be the gay choir director of Obama's Chicago church and who shared information with Sinclair about Obama, and Young just happened to be murdered on December 23, 2007, just weeks after Larry Bland, another gay member of the church, just happened to be murdered, and both murders just happened to have never been solved. In 2008 Sinclair held a press conference to discuss his claims, and just happened to be arrested immediately after the event, based on a warrant issued by Delaware Attorney General Beau Biden, who just happens to be the son of Joe Biden.

In 2003 Obama and his wife attended a dinner in honor of Rashid Khalidi, who just happened to be a former PLO operative, harsh critic of Israel, and advocate of Palestinian rights, and who Obama claims he does not know, even though the Obamas just happened to have dined more than once at the home of Khalidi and his wife, Mona, and just happened to have used them as occasional baby-sitters. Obama reportedly praised Khalidi at the decidedly anti-Semitic event, which William Ayers just happened to also attend, and the event Obama pretends he never attended was sponsored by the Arab American Action Network, to which Obama just happened to have funneled cash while serving on the board of the Woods Fund with William Ayers, and one speaker at the dinner remarked that if Palestinians cannot secure a return of their land, Israel "will never see a day of peace," and entertainment at the dinner included a Muslim children's dance whose performances just happened to include simulated beheadings with fake swords, and stomping on American, Israeli, and British flags, and Obama allegedly told the audience that "Israel has no God-given right to occupy Palestine" and there has been "genocide against the Palestinian people by (the) Israelis," and the Los Angeles Times has a videotape of the event but just happens to refuse to make it public.

In the 2004 Illinois Democrat primary race for the U.S. Senate, front-runner Blair Hull just happened to be forced out of the race after David Axelrod just happened to manage to get Hull's sealed divorce records unsealed, which just happened to enable Obama to win the primary, so he could face popular Republican Jack Ryan, whose sealed child custody records from his divorce just happened to become unsealed, forcing Ryan to withdraw from the race, which just happened to enable the unqualified Obama to waltz into the U.S. Senate, where, after a mere 143 days of work, he just happened to decide he was qualified to run for President of the United States.

Obama just happened to save $300,000 on the purchase of a $1.65 million Chicago mansion for which he deposited only $1,000 in earnest money, while the seller's adjacent empty lot which was appraised at no more than $500,000 just happened to be sold at the inflated price of $625,000 to Rita Rezko, who just happened to earn only $37,000 per year working for Cook County government, and who just happened to be married to Tony Rezko, who just happened to be Obama's main money man for his political campaigns, and who only days before the Obama mansion purchase just happened to obtain a $3.5 million loan from wealthy Iraqi Nadhmi Auchi, who just happened to have been kicked out of Iraq, and who just happened to have been convicted of corruption charges in France, and who just happened to ask Rezko to ask then-U.S. Senator Obama to help him obtain a visa to travel to the United States.

Rita Rezko just happened to borrow the money for the $625,000 empty lot from the Mutual Bank of Harvey, which just happened to be run by Tony Rezko's pal Amrish Mahajan, whose wife Anita just happened to have been charged with fraudulently receiving $2 million in Illinois taxpayer dollars for drug tests never performed by her company, K. K. Bio-Science, which just happened to have a no-bid contract with the state, and whose computers just happened to disappear right before investigators arrived to take them away for evidence.

Obama just happened to obtain a $1.32 million mortgage for his mansion even though the payments of $8,000 per month (plus at least $1,500 per month in property taxes) exceeded 50 percent of his $162,100 U.S. Senate salary income, and even though Michelle Obama was claiming that she and her husband were still paying off substantial student loans and were struggling to pay for piano lessons for their daughters, one of whom just happens to look remarkably like one of the daughters of Malcolm X.

Obama just happened to obtain his mansion mortgage from Northern Trust Bank, whose Board of Directors just happened to include Susan Crown, who just happened to be part of the wealthy Crown family, which just happened to donate to Obama's campaigns, and which just happened to have ownership in defense contractor General Dynamics Corporation, and the Crown family just happened to sit on the board of energy company Exelon, formerly known as Commonwealth Edison, which just happened to have had Thomas Ayers as its CEO, and the Crown family also owned the Maytag appliance company, which just happened to move its operations to Mexico, after its employees just happened to donate to Obama's campaign, after he just happened to pledge that he would keep their jobs in Galesburg, Illinois.

In June 2005, just months after Obama became a U.S. Senator, Michelle Obama just happened to be named a "non-executive director" of the board of TreeHouse Foods, a supplier of Wal-Mart, for a salary of $51,200 in 2005 and $101,083 in 2006, and she just happened to be given 7,500 TreeHouse stock options, worth approximately $72,375, even though she just happened to know nothing about the private sector or running a business.

In 2006 Obama pushed for a $1 million earmark for the University of Chicago, and his wife Michelle just happened to be promoted to Vice-President of Community and External Affairs for the hospitals with a salary increase from $121,900 to $316,962, and she just happened to receive public relations help from Obama's political strategist David Axelrod, whose mother just happened to write for a communist newspaper.

In 2006 Sarah P. Herlihy, an associate of the Chicago law firm of Kirkland and Ellis, whose employees later contributed $87,722 to Obama's presidential campaign, and whose partner Bruce I. Ettleson just happened to be a member of Obama's campaign finance committee, just happened to write a paper calling for the elimination of the "natural born citizen" requirement in the U.S. Constitution.

Obama just happened to visit Kenya in 2006 to support his cousin, Raila Odinga, a Muslim socialist candidate for president, who just happened to have ties to both al-Qaeda and Libya's Muammar Qaddafi, and who just happened to have been educated in communist East Germany, and who just happened to name his son Fidel, and who just happened to plan on establishing Shari'ah Muslim law in Kenya, and whose activities prompted the Kenyan government to lodge an official protest of Obama's passport abuse and misconduct, and Obama's actions just happened to have been denounced by the U.S. State Department as being in direct opposition to U.S. National Security, and after Odinga, for whom Obama just happened to have raised $950,000, lost the election, his Muslim followers just happened to burn Christian women and children alive in a church where they had sought refuge.

In 2006 Obama endorsed Alexi Giannoulias in his race for Illinois State Treasurer and stated that he is "...one of the most outstanding young men I could ever hope to meet"—even though Giannoulias just happened to be only 29 years old and even though his family's Broadway Bank just happened to finance Chicago crime figures like Michael "Jaws" Giorango, a Chicago thug with convictions for bookmaking and promoting prostitution, and even though virtually all of Chicago's Democrat politicians were keeping their distance from Giannoulias, whose reputation was so questionable he even failed to get the endorsement of the Chicago Democrat Party—which just happens to almost never be concerned about questionable reputations.

Obama's mother, Stanley Ann Dunham, once worked for the Ford Foundation's Asia program, which just happened to be run by Peter Geithner, who just happened to be the father of Timothy Geithner, who just happened to neglect to pay Social Security taxes on much of his income, which just happened to somehow qualify him to be Obama's Treasury Secretary.

During the 2008 campaign Obama's passport records just happened to have been illegally searched by an employee of a firm headed by John O. Brennan, and Lt. Quarles Harris, Jr., who was cooperating with federal investigators in connection with the incident, just happened to be found with a bullet in his head, and the murder just happened never to be solved, and Obama later just happened to make Brennan his terrorism and intelligence advisor.

On election night in 2008 in Chicago's Grant Park, Obama just happened to wear a black suit and a red tie, and his older daughter just happened to wear a red dress, and his younger daughter just happened to wear a stark black dress, and his wife Michelle just happened to wear an arguably unattractive black dress that appeared to have a giant red X design, which just happened to prompt some to wonder if their clothing just happened to denote black power, communism, and Malcolm X, and at the very least prompted others to wonder why anyone would have his daughter wear a jet-black dress for a celebratory occasion—or where one could even just happen to find a store that sells black dresses for little girls.

From election night forward there are hundreds of other “just happened,” not the least of which is the long-form birth certificate released by Obama in April 2011 which just happened to consist of multiple image layers, including various objects which can be separated and rotated with computer software—which just happens to be impossible if a birth certificate is merely scanned and not computer-constructed by a forger.

I could go on . . . but you get the idea. (Don Fredrick, Blogpost, Oct.1, 2012).

Election Skullduggery

The question must be asked. I wish I didn't have to be the one to ask it. But, since no one else will, it falls to me.

Did Barack Obama actually, legitimately, fairly and legally win the election? My answer is an unequivocal no.

It was not a free and fair election. In fact, if we as a nation don't acknowledge the reality of what I am saying, we may never have a free and fair election again in the future of this once-great nation. Here are some facts to consider:

The Obama campaign accepted at least some foreign campaign cash – willingly and knowingly. The campaign website could have prohibited it. It did not. In other words, it deliberately left open the door for illegal foreign contributions in its "by any means necessary" quest for re-election. WND has proven that by actually contributing under the name Osama bin Laden from a Pakistani IP address, with a phony physical address and other neon-lit red flags in hopes of catching attention. Obama accepted illegal foreign contributions in 2008 without penalty, so why would anyone expect him not to repeat his crime in 2012? No one can know the extent of the fraud, because Obama has refused to release the identity of donors of $200 or less – yet he boasts that most of the money he collected was in small amounts.

James O'Keefe and Project Veritas spent months heroically proving the absolute willingness and eagerness of Democratic operatives to commit voter fraud – especially by having people cast multiple votes.

Military ballots were systematically denied active-duty servicemen and women around the world. This would be a scandal if it happened once. But it has become the norm when Democrats are in charge of the Defense Department. It would be a scandal if it were due to incompetence. But it appears to be a deliberate effort to suppress the military vote. It would be a scandal if it were not a close election. But it was.

Prior to the election, Democrats fought for open voting requiring no identification – particularly photo ID. Coincidentally, Obama won every state that didn't fully require photo ID to vote. Democrats contended that voter ID laws suppress the vote. But they do not. They only suppress the illegal vote.

Across Philadelphia, GOP poll inspectors were forcibly (and illegally) removed from polling locations. Coincidentally (or not), Obama received "astronomical" numbers in those very same regions, including locations where he received "over 99 percent" of the vote. Ward 4, which also had a poll watcher dressed in Obama attire, went massively for Obama. Obama received 99.5 percent of the vote, defeating Romney 9,955 to 55.

Obama also won 99.8 percent of the vote in 44 Cleveland districts. In another Ohio county, Obama won with 108 percent of the voters registered.

Obama received 10 million fewer votes than he did in 2008. Romney received 3 million fewer votes than McCain. Obama won in the four critical swing states by a grand total of 500,000 votes.

Some 5 million independents changed their votes from Obama to Romney in 2012. So Romney started the day 2.5 million votes ahead of where McCain was in 2008, as Jack Wheeler points out. This means that 5.5 million Republican voters are not accounted for. Either they didn't show up at the polls or their votes were not counted. Does anyone believe there was less enthusiasm by Republicans about this election than for the one in 2008?

I could go on and on, but you get the point. In such a close election, these anomalies are unacceptable. In an election in which all the voter fraud appears to be perpetrated by one side, it could more than make the difference in the race. Worse yet, will an unscrupulous party that would resort to such crimes to win ever permit another free and fair election in the future – especially if the crimes are not exposed and punished severely?

I believe going into the election that at least 5 percent of the Democratic vote would be fraudulent. That would mean Republicans would have to out-perform Democrats by 6 percent to win. I suspect now I was too conservative in my projections of about the expected level of criminality perpetrated by Obama's Democrats.

Remember from where Obama arose. He was a community organizer and attorney for ACORN, which is nothing but an organized crime front with a focus on throwing elections.

Do I think Obama won fair and square? No. I think he won only because of systematic fraud, corruption and abuse in the 2012 election.

Very likely, it would not have even been a close election had Obama not made cheating – in every conceivable way – the central component of his campaign effort. (WND, Nov.16, 2012).

Did Obama Really Win?

During the recent presidential election, the liberal, pro- --" homosexual, pro-Marxist news media in all three main television companies (NBC, ABC, and CBS) had an almost unlimited influence on voter outcome in all 50 states. Also, the use of TV advertisements with FREE offers was used by the Obama election promoters. To young female voters, he offered "free abortions and free contraception," along with free education to some and unlimited student loans to others. To immigrants, he offered free aid and a good job. To seniors – no longer a need to worry about dying; the government will take care of that for you. . . .

[T]he failure of a computer program was probably responsible for the presidency being filled by President Obama instead of Governor Romney. Both political parties had a comprehensive nationwide plan for getting out the vote. Such plans called for keeping account of how many had voted in a certain district and even the names and phone numbers of those who had not voted.

The name of the Republican computer program was "Project Orca." Forty thousand Republican workers were on duty across the nation to call registered Republican voters to make sure they had voted, and to provide transportation for those who needed a ride to the polls. Evidently, on the morning of November 6, when the computer switch to the program was turned on – zilch – nothing! The 40,000 Republican voting assistant workers from Hawaii to Maine, from Alaska to California, sat on their hands as Democratic voting assistants brought millions to the polls.

According to breithurt.com, it is a common opinion that if the Republican computer program had worked, Governor Romney would have been elected by a large majority.

Was this some kind of hanky-panky by the president or his cohorts? Or, was it an act of God, like the once-in- a-century hurricane that hit the northeastern states just before this election? If President Obama won due to a computer glitch, this would make Watergate seem like a Sunday School church meeting!

This we do know: God is still on the throne and prayer changes things. Maybe there will be another election in four years; or maybe not. We can only pray that God's will for this nation is one of mercy rather than justice. (The Prophetic Observer, Noah W. Hutchings, Dec.2012).

Signs In The Heavens –

Brightest Comet In Modern Times Coming In 2013

Comet “Ison” is coming in 2013 – expected to be the brightest comet by far to enter the solar system in hundreds of years, if not since man was upon the earth. What does it portend? What is its significance? Could it be a harbinger of the coming of Jesus Christ, the Messiah, in glory in the near future?

William F. Dankenbring

For centuries people believed that the coming of a comet would bring disaster upon the earth, such as war or disease epidemics and plague.

Comets are noteworthy signs and portents of the future. A comet blazed in the heavens at the Exodus, when God’s plague struck Israel when David numbered the people, at the fall of Jerusalem in 70 A.D., at the Battle of Hastings in 1066 A.D., at the fall of the Inca empire in 1520 A.D. Comets have blazed in the heavens at the fall of presidents, kings, tyrants, and empires.

Could there be something very significant about the comet expected in 2013?

Celestial Omens

Comets were long regarded, at least up until very modern times, as "omens of doom." A comet appeared in 1665 during the Great Plague in England when people died like flies. One in five Londoners died of the bubonic plague. Daniel Defoe, who wrote Journal of the Plague Year. had no doubt the comet portended “a heavy judgment, slow but severe, terrible and frightful, as was the plague.” The next year, another comet appeared, and the Great Fire of London broke out which nearly destroyed the whole city.

Records of comets go back at least to 500 B.C. The ancient Greeks called them “hairy stars.” In fact, the word “comet” itself comes from the Greek kometes, meaning the “hairy one.” The Chinese, on the other hand, compared the tails of comets to the straw of a broom, and called them “broom stars.” Fiery, with a brilliant tail stretching half way across the sky, major comets have been regarded since the dawn of history with a feeling of dread and awe. For primitive people, comets were looked upon as terrible portents, presaging the wrath of gods.

Often comets appear white, but sometimes they are yellow or blood red. They may hover in the night sky for days, weeks, or even months, waxing brighter or growing dim. Their tail may lengthen till it reaches nearly half the sky, swell up, shrink, or sometimes split into as many as five separate tails. Sudden jets may shoot out from the head of the comet toward the sun. On rare occasion a comet may fragment into two or three separate comets as it goes around in close proximity to the sun.

For thousands of years, comets instilled terror into mankind, auguring the coming of pestilence, the death of kings and the overthrow of kingdoms. In the Middle Ages comets were equated with evil and were called by some “Satan's tail.”

In December 2013, astronomers expect to see the most astonishing and spectacular comet seen on earth in centuries, if not millennia!

The Comet “Ison”

Scientific American reports, “As it flares out of the distant Oort Cloud, the newly discovered comet C/2012 S1 (ISON) appears to be heading on a trajectory that could make for one of the most spectacular night-sky events in living memory. Why is this comet expected to be so unique? Two reasons:

“Astronomers predict that the comet will pass just 1.16 million miles from the Sun as it swings around its perihelion, or closest approach. (This may seem like a lot, but remember – the Sun is big.

“If we were to scale the Sun down to the size of Earth, the comet would pass well within the orbits of dozens of satellites.) The close approach will melt enormous amounts of the comet's ice, releasing dust and gas and forming what should be a magnificent tail.

“After it loops around the Sun and forms this tail, the comet should then pass relatively close to Earth – not near enough to cause any worry, but close enough to put on a great show. Viewers in the Northern Hemisphere will get the best view as the comet blooms in the weeks approaching Christmas 2013. The comet could grow as bright as the full moon. . .” (“Next year’s ‘brightest comet in modern times’ to be ‘once in a civilization’ event,” Scientific American, Oct.6, 2012).

Astronomy Now is calling the comet Ison “a once-in-a-civilization's-lifetime” event. Says Astronomy Now, “A new comet has been discovered that is predicted to blaze incredibly brilliantly in the skies during late 2013. . . . Current predictions are of an object that will dazzle the eye at up to magnitude —16. That’s far brighter than the full Moon. If predictions hold true then C/2012 S1 will certainly be one of the greatest comets in human history, far outshining the memorable Comet Hale-Bopp of 1997 and very likely to outdo the long-awaited Comet Pan-STARRS (C/2011 L4) which is set to stun in March 2013” (“New comet might blaze brighter than the full Moon,” by Peter Grego, Astronomy Now, Sept.25, 2012).

The new comet named C/2012 S1 (ISON) was found by the International Scientific Optical Network (ISON) in Russia on 21 September, by astronomers Vatali Nevski and Artyom Novichonok.

The Great Comet of 1680

The comet expert John E. Bortle compares ISON with the Great Comet of 1680, which, according to contemporary accounts, caused the people of New York's Manhattan Island to be “overcome with terror at a sight in the heavens such as has seldom greeted human eyes. . . . In the province of New York a day of fasting and humiliation was appointed, in order that the wrath of God might be assuaged.”

A contemporary description of that comet was given in The Dutch and Quaker Colonies in America by John Fiske who wrote in Chapter XI, “New York in the Year 1680” as follows:

“Late in the autumn of 1680 the good people of Manhattan were overcome with terror at a sight in the heavens such as has seldom greeted human eyes. An enormous comet, perhaps the most magnificent one on record, suddenly made its appearance.

“At first it was tailless and dim, like a nebulous cloud, but at the end of a week the tail began to show itself and in a second week had attained a length of 30 degrees; in the third week it extended to 70 degrees, while the whole mass was growing brighter.

“After five weeks it seemed to be absorbed into the intense glare of the sun, but in four days more it reappeared like a blazing sun itself in the throes of some giant convulsion and threw out a tail in the opposite direction as far as the whole distance between the sun and the earth.

“Sir Isaac Newton, who was then at work upon the mighty problems soon to be published to the world in his Principia, welcomed this strange visitor as affording him a beautiful instance for testing the truth of his new theory of gravitation. But most people throughout the civilized world, the learned as well as the multitude, feared that the end of all things was at hand.

“Every church in Europe, from the grandest cathedral to the humblest chapel, resounded with supplications, and in the province of New York a day of fasting and humiliation was appointed, in order that the wrath of God might be assuaged.”

Astronomy Now's choice of words is interesting. A re-examination of history in light of cyclic catastrophes reveals “once-in-a-civilization” events to be such because they are civilization-ending events!

Notice that the name of the comet is “ISON” – which is remarkably similar to I, Son” – that is, “I [the] Son” – a reference to Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who is soon to return to the earth! Is this comet the forerunner, the end-time anticipatory comet blazing the way for the coming of the Son of God?

In the Mount Olivet Prophecy, Jesus Christ declared that before His second coming, a fascinating omen would be seen in the heavens. He asserted, speaking of the end-time tribulation and world distress preceding His coming, “Then the SIGN of the Son of Man will appear in heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory” (Matt.24:30).

The Greek word translated as “sign” here is semeion and means “an indication, miracle, sign, token, wonder.” Thayer’s Greek-English Lexicon defines it as “a sign, prodigy, portent, i.e. an unusual occurrence, transcending the common course of nature.” Could this comet be the “sign” or “portent” of the glorious coming of the Messiah? This comet, if it lives up to its billing, certainly could point to the glorious soon coming of the Lord Jesus Christ from heaven!

The Hale-Bopp comet, pictured above, wowed viewers in 1997, which was the 6,000th year from the Creation of Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden. It apparently was “small potatoes” compared to the ISON comet projected to plunge through the solar system in the latter months of 2013.

Comet ISON will be seen best by observers in the northern hemisphere. It is expected to reach binocular visibility by late summer of 2013 and a naked eye object in early November. Its peak brightness will be in late November and it will remain visible to the naked eye until the middle of January 2014.

“And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; and upon the earth [there will be]distress (trouble and anguish) of nations in bewilderment and perplexity [without resources, left wanting, embarrassed, in doubt, not knowing which way to turn]at the roaring (the echo) of the tossing of the sea, men swooning away or expiring with fear and dread and apprehension and expectation of the things that are coming on the world; for the [very] powers of the heavens will be shaken and caused to totter” (Luke 21:25-26, Amplified Parallel Bible).

12th-century rabbi predicted Israel's future

Now his prophecies about return of Messiah are being studied

JERUSALEM – Judah Ben Samuel was a legendary and prolific German rabbi of the 12th century who made some astonishing and specific predictions about the future of Jerusalem and Israel that came true.

Judah Ben Samuel, also known as Judah he-Hasid (Judah the Pious), lived and worked from the end of the 12th century until the beginning of the 13th century in Regensburg, authoring a number of books in the German language.

Ludwig Schneider of Israel Today magazine has translated some of his work into English over the last few years, including "The Book of the Pious – Sefer Hasidim" and the "Book of Calculations – Sefer Gematriyot."

Following the Christian crusades to the Holy Land, between 1096-1270, a regular correspondence developed between the Jews in the Holy Land and the Christian West. Thus, for example, the rabbis in Worms and Regensburg in Germany knew that Saladin's Ayyubids had been ruling in the Holy Land since 1187.

At this time, Judah Ben Samuel published the results of his biblical calculations (Gematria) and astrological observations and summarized as follows: "When the Ottomans (Turks) – who were already a power to be reckoned with on the Bosphorus in the time of Judah Ben Samuel – conquer Jerusalem they will rule over Jerusalem for eight jubilees. Afterwards Jerusalem will become no-man's land for one jubilee, and then in the ninth jubilee it will once again come back into the possession of the Jewish nation – which would signify the beginning of the Messianic end time."

One jubilee is 50 years (Leviticus 25). It is the 50th year after seven times seven years, the year in which each person should regain ownership of his or her land. Ben Samuel's calculations were purely theoretical; there was absolutely no sign at that time of their being fulfilled. He himself was not able to experience their fulfillment, for it was only 300 years after his death that the first of his predictions were to come true.

The Mamluks, who had been reigning in Jerusalem since 1250, were conquered in 1517 by the Ottoman Turks. They remained for eight jubilees ($8 \times 50 = 400$ years), that is to say they were in Jerusalem for 400 years. Exactly 400 years later, in 1917, the Ottoman Turks were conquered by the British. The League of Nations conferred the Mandate for the Holy Land and Jerusalem to the British. Thus, from 1917, under international law, Jerusalem was no-man's land. Then, when Israel captured Jerusalem in the Six Day War of 1967, exactly one jubilee (50 years) after 1917, Jerusalem reverted to Jewish-Israeli ownership once again. Thereby, according to the prophecies of Judah Ben Samuel, the Messianic End Times began.

Many scholars have studied and made reference to Judah Ben Samuel's writings in an effort to understand how he reached his conclusions. Among those referencing Ben Samuel were Rabbi Isaac Ben Solomon Luria, a mystic dealing with the messianic world (Jerusalem, 1531-1572, Safed); Joseph Solomon Delmegido (1591 Candia - 1655 Prague), a mathematician and astronomer ("Mazref le-Chochma"), Azulai I (1724-1806), a famed bibliographer; Samuel David Luzzatto (1800-1865), a Bible scholar; historian Heinrich Graetz (1817-1891); and Torah scholar Jacob Epstein (1925-1993).

The secret of how Judah the Pious arrived at such accurate predictions has less to do with the actual calculations than it does with the fact that he had consecrated his life to God. His pupils Rabbi Isaac ben Moses (Vienna), Rabbi Baruch ben Samuel (Mainz) and Rabbi Simcha (Speyer) testify that Ben Samuel was a model of abstinence and selflessness and was awaiting with a burning desire the coming of the Messiah.

Ben Samuel was often called "Light of Israel." Even bishops came to him for advice. If anyone asked him where his wisdom came from he would answer, "The prophet Elijah, who will precede the Messiah, appeared to me and revealed many things to me and emphasized that the precondition for answered prayer is that it is fueled by enthusiasm and joy for the greatness and holiness of God."

But to recap the astonishing predictions: In AD 1217 this scholarly and pious rabbi prophesied that the Ottoman Turks would rule over the holy city of Jerusalem for eight Jubilees. Now, keep in mind, he made this prediction 300 years before the Ottoman Turks seized control of Jerusalem in 1517. If indeed 1217 and 1517 were jubilee years as Judah Ben Samuel believed, then his prophecy was exactly right, because exactly 400 years after the Turks took control of Jerusalem they were driven out of the city and the holy land in 1917 by the Allied forces under the command of General George Allenby – on Hanukkah, by the way.

But it gets more interesting still.

The rabbi also prophesied that during the ninth Jubilee Jerusalem would be a "no-man's land." This is exactly what happened from 1917 to 1967, due to the fact that the Holy Land was placed under British Mandate in 1917 by the League of Nations and literally "belonged" to no nation.

Even after Israel's war of independence in 1948-49, Jerusalem was still divided by a strip of land running right through the heart of the city, with Jordan controlling the eastern part of the city and Israel controlling the western part of the city. That strip of land was considered and even called "no-man's land" by both the Israelis and the Jordanians.

It was not until the Six Day War in 1967 when the entire West Bank of the Holy Land was conquered by the Israeli army that the whole city of Jerusalem passed back into the possession of Israel. So once again the prophecy made by the rabbi 750 years previously was fulfilled to the letter.

It certainly would be significant if both 1917 and 1967 were Jubilee years, considering the significance of what happened in Jerusalem on those years. But it gets even more interesting, because Judah Ben Samuel also prophesied that during the 10th Jubilee Jerusalem would be under the control of the Jews and the Messianic "end times" would begin. If he's right, the 10th Jubilee began in 1967 and will be concluded in 2017.

"The Bible should be our standard for prophecy and interpretation of prophetic events," said Joseph Farah, editor and founder of WND, upon learning of Judah Ben Samuel's predictions in Israel Today. "But one cannot ignore what this 12th-century rabbi said and wrote. It's well-documented. And I applaud Israel Today for bringing it to light. The implications of these predictions is staggering to say the least."

Letters from Our Readers

"I stumbled across your web site and found it to be very interesting! I am a believer of the true gospels that I have read in the Holy Bible a long time ago. The Gospel or Good News of the Coming kingdom of God. I could not make anyone believe in me because my family were Born Again Christians. Then I stumbled on Herbert Armstrong's writings and found a lot of truth but the Church of God was already broken and I did not know where to turn. I want to be Baptized and also I want to be SAVED. I am scared and do not want to be turned away by Christ in the end! Please help me find the way, the true way..."

-- Pennsylvania

"I am sending the attached short speech from Winston Churchill, delivered by him in 1899 when he was a young soldier and journalist. It probably sets out the current views of many, but expressed in the wonderful Churchillian turn of phrase and use of the English language, of which he was a master. Sir Winston Churchill was, without doubt, one of the greatest men of the late 19th and 20th centuries.

"He was a brave young soldier, a brilliant journalist, an extraordinary politician and statesman, a great war leader and Prime Minister, to whom the Western world must be forever in his debt. He was a prophet in his own time. He died on 24 January 1965, at the grand old age of 90 and, after a lifetime of service to his country, and was accorded a State funeral.

"HERE IS THE SPEECH:

" 'How dreadful are the curses which Mohammedanism lays on its votaries! Besides the fanatical frenzy, which is as dangerous in a man as hydrophobia in a dog, there is this fearful fatalistic apathy. The effects are apparent in many countries, improvident habits, slovenly systems of agriculture, sluggish methods of commerce, and insecurity of property exist wherever the followers of the Prophet rule or live.

A degraded sensualism deprives this life of its grace and refinement, the next of its dignity and sanctity. The fact that in Mohammedan law every woman must belong to some man as his absolute property, either as a child, a wife, or a concubine, must delay the final extinction of slavery until the faith of Islam has ceased to be a great power among men.

" 'Individual Muslims may show splendid qualities, but the influence of the religion paralyses the social development of those who follow it.

" 'No stronger retrograde force exists in the world. Far from being moribund, Mohammedanism is a militant and proselytizing faith. It has already spread throughout Central Africa, raising fearless warriors at every step, and were it not that Christianity is sheltered in the strong arms of science, the science against which it had vainly struggled, the civilization of modern Europe might fall, as fell the civilization of ancient Rome.'"

"Churchill saw it coming . . ."

"Thank you for the sermon tapes and all the hard work you do. I write to ask your advice on an investment; basically my pension investments are not good enough so I am looking to invest for the future. I have found a timber investment run by a British company in Costa Rica. The plan is to buy sapling trees and have them looked after by the company. In 8 12 16 or 24 years the investment matures and the profits are taken. All this sounds good – trouble is I don't expect America to be running the world much longer. Without going into detail, I expect America to be devastated in the next war, I expect China to take over Central America in the next few years, and I have extreme doubts as to ever getting my investment back.

“I guess I’ve answered my own question! But what can we invest in in this day and age, Bill?”
-- Europe

COMMENT: The Kingdom of God IS THE ONLY WISE INVESTMENT, today. Jesus Christ declared in plain language, “Do NOT lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal. But lay up for yourselves treasures in HEAVEN, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your HEART will be also” (Matt.6:19-21). All other investments, at this time, are worthless and will turn to dust. Anyone who thinks he can invest now in this world will miss the great opportunities, and see his dreams shattered and his hopes lost in a flood of cataclysm and horror. There is only one safe haven. Remember the poor widow. We read, “And He looked up and saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, and He saw also a certain poor widow putting in two mites [Greek lepto, two small copper coins]. So He said, ‘Truly I say to you, that this poor widow has put in more than all; for all these out of their abundance have put in offerings for God, but she out of her poverty put in all the livelihood that she had’” (Luke 21:1-4).

Ponder it well. This is not the time to amass money for retirement, or to invest in this world and its systems, governments, and properties. Now is the time to invest in the Kingdom of God, through tithes and offerings. “Will a man rob God? Yet you have robbed Me! But you say, ‘In what way have we robbed You?’ IN TITHES AND OFFERINGS. You are cursed with a curse, for you have robbed Me, even this whole nation. BRING ALL THE TITHES into the storehouse, that there may be food in My house, and try [test, prove] Me in this,’ Says the LORD of hosts, ‘If I will not open for you the windows of heaven and pour out for you such blessing that there will not be room to receive it’” (Malachi 3:8-10).

Yeshua, Christ, added: “But SEEK FIRST the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things [our personal needs and necessities] will be added to you. Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble” (Matt.6:33-34).

“I have not written nor have I sent any contribution lately. Man, I have been through some discouraging stuff. I’ve been robbed and my left arm has been broken in three places near the wrist. I’m not very happy at the moment. Yet I won’t give up. I have nowhere really to turn. I’m aware that other than YAHVEH everything else is just a LIE. Man, why does God keep me in the fire at all times? I need help. I’m very discouraged and I’m wandering; even if I know not to wander. It’s like I’ll mess with things I know that’s not right, yet I still do it; and so for sure I’m being punished. I need to see or experience YAHVEH. I don’t believe I doubt. Nor do I believe I’ve given up. I’m respectfully requesting help. I’ve been in the enemies’ grip for quite a while. Please allow me to go back to the mountains. In a legal or non-violent way. Please pray for me. I’m still requesting to stay on your mailing list for the Bible Study and Prophecy Flash magazine.”

COMMENT: Sounds like the apostle Paul. In Romans 7 he cried out, in some anguish, “For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, sold under sin. For what I am doing, I do not understand. For what I will to do, that I do not practice; but what I hate, that I do. If then, I do what I will not to do, I agree with the law that it is good. But now, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells; for to will is present with me, but how to perform what is good I do not find. For the good that I will to do, I do not do; but the evil I will not to do, that I practice. Now if I do what I will not to do, it is no longer I who do it, but sin that dwells in me.” Paul went on, “I find then a law, that evil is present with me, the one who wills to do good. For I delight in the law of God according to the inward man. But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? I thank God—through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin” (Rom.7:14-25).

Does that sound something like what you are going through? You did not explain how your arm near your wrist was broken in three places. Was it an accident? Or did you get in a fight? We all have accidents. Usually they are preventable, if we are careful and watch our going and coming. Fights are another matter – a matter of temper control, and wisdom, and avoiding argument and strife, bringing every thought into subjection to Christ. As Paul also wrote, “For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing EVERY THOUGHT into captivity to the obedience of Christ” (II Cor.10:4-5).

You sound a little frustrated – feel like you’re being punished. Let’s understand. Nothing happens to us without the knowledge of God, and His permission. He lets us make our mistakes. We are not robots. He gave you a mind to make your own decisions, right or wrong – and there are consequences. God wants us to learn to choose right, to choose the way of life, to choose to avoid evil, arguments with others, strife, and bad situations. We should strive to be “peace makers” (Matt.5:9). He lets us go through various trials, to teach us lessons we desperately need to learn, in order to become righteous sons of God and qualify to enter His everlasting kingdom. These lessons include anger management, patience, self control, mastering our impulses, loving others, gentleness, doing good to others and not evil, mastering our tongue, speaking only words of kindness and helpfulness, minding our own business, avoiding situations and discussions where disagreement can lead to violence. Some people are very easily offended. The close proximity of living with other men in prison may heighten sensibilities, and be a constant irritation, causing many men to be easily provoked or “ticked off.” We must therefore learn to be humble, willing to be insulted, rather than return evil for evil. The principle of “turning the other cheek” is a godly one, learning to avoid violence. That does not mean self defense is wrong, just that there is a time to avoid violence or threats by being and acting humble, and not just “re-acting” without thinking, as our human flesh might be inclined to do.

I do not know your entire situation, but prison is a tough life, and learning to get along with others is even tougher, under such conditions. It is like a crucible, or a pressure cooker. It is a time to concentrate on learning lessons, including self mastery, humility, and sincerity, causing no offense to others – especially religious-wise. A true Christian is to love his brothers, even Muslims, or other people of other faiths or beliefs. As Peter wrote, “And above all things have fervent love for one another, for love will cover a multitude of sins” (I Peter 4:8).

The best thing I can encourage you to do in your circumstances is a lesson I was taught years ago, in the Bible Correspondence Course lesson “How to Study the Bible.” The essence was that we should spend an hour a day in prayer, an hour a day in reading and studying the Scriptures, and an hour a day meditating on the things we studied. I am therefore enclosing articles on prayer, Bible study, and meditation, for you – and a copy of Lesson Three of the Correspondence Course lessons.

As you know, God gives us trials to test us, and to develop “spiritual muscles” – like faith, patience, endurance, self control, and strong righteous character, so we can resist temptation and overcome the pulls of the flesh and the carnal mind. Like Job, we all have to go through the fiery furnace of trials and testing, as James wrote: “My brethren, count it all joy when you fall into various trials, knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience” (James 1:2-3). Peter explains, “Beloved, do not think it strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you; but REJOICE to the extent that you partake of Christ’s sufferings, that when His glory is revealed, you may also be glad with exceeding joy” (I Pet.4:12-13).

As Christ Himself said, believing is not enough. We must prove our belief by our enduring – faithful – to the very end. He said, “And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. But he who endures to the end shall be saved” (Matt.24:12-13). This is the time to buckle on the whole armor of God (Eph.6:10-17). This is the time to fight onward and “endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ” (II Tim.2: 3). As James wrote, “My brethren, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of suffering and patience. Indeed we count them blessed who endure. You have heard of the perseverance of Job and seen the end intended by the Lord—that the Lord is very compassionate and merciful. But above all, brethren, do not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath. But let your ‘Yes’ be ‘Yes,’ and your ‘No,’ ‘No,’ lest you fall into judgment. Is anyone among you suffering? LET HIM PRAY. Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing psalms . . . The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much” (James 5:10-16).

Remember, three times Christ prayed to the Father in the garden of Gethsemane, “O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will” (Matt.26:39-44). Three times! He endured the cross, the crucifixion, the nailing of His hands and feet to the stake, the cat-o-nine-tails slashing into His back, arms and legs, the crown of thorns jammed on His head – He who had done no sin, nothing wrong. He went through all that for us!!!

Paul truly reminds us, “Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. For consider Him who ENDURED such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin” (Heb.12:2-4).

Remember, Peter wrote, likewise, “For what credit is it if, when you are beaten for your faults, you take it patiently? But when you do good and suffer, if you take it patiently, this is commendable before God. For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that we should follow His steps: Who committed no sin nor was deceit found in His mouth; who, when He was reviled, did not revile in return; when He suffered, He did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously” (I Peter 2:20-23).

We pray for you, Robert. The enemy has no power over your mind. Even though you are confined behind bars of steel, you can be back in the mountains, in your mind’s eye, enjoying the smell of the pine, the lofty grandeur of the sequoias, the gurgling of the brook, the splashing and dashing of the waters over the rocks of the waterfall, the chirp of the feathered birds, the scurrying of the squirrels, the soaring of the eagle on a thermal updraft, and the clouds as they float past in the blue vault of heaven.

Commit your life and your time to God. Pray to Him about your cares, “casting all your cares upon Him, for He cares for you” (I Pet.5:7). David wrote, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove! I would fly way and be at rest. Indeed, I would wander far off, and remain in the wilderness. Selah. I would hasten my escape from the windy storm and tempest” (Psalm 55:6-8). He then said, “Cast your burdens on the LORD, and He shall sustain you; He shall never permit the righteous to be moved” (v.22).

And Solomon wrote, “Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths. Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and depart from evil. It will be health to your flesh, and strength to your bones . . . My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, nor detest His correction; for whom the LORD loves He corrects, just as a father the son in whom he delights” (Prov.3:5-12).

I think, Robert, that I have given you a lot to “chew” on, a lot to think about, and pray about. You might find it helpful to quietly pray, as you re-read this letter, and look up and ponder the Scriptures I have quoted, and the verses around them, too. It will be as marrow to your bones and strength to your heart, and a balm to your soul.

May God be with you in your trials, and strengthen you physically and spiritually. Now is not the time to contemplate giving up and throwing in the towel. Now is the time to carry on, go forward, hang on for dear life, and strive to enter in through the strait gate. Now is the time to press on—as Paul says, “Not that I have already attained, or am already perfected; but I press on, that I may lay hold of that for which Christ Jesus has also laid hold of me. Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I PRESS TOWARD THE GOAL for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus” (Phil.3:12-14).

May God be with you, lead and guide you, as you struggle and strive to serve Him and do those things precious and pleasing in His sight. As John wrote, “And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight” (I John 3:22).

“In the aftermath of Sandy striking New York, I could not help but think about the book The Harbinger, by Jonathan Cahn. One more harbinger of doom for that city. I’m sure you will be talking about it this Sabbath.

“I looked at the end of the last chapter, just to remind myself of how the book ended....and I just want to quote it: ‘A watchman on the wall who has seen the signs...and the city sleeps...the people have no idea of what’s coming...and to you is entrusted the sound of their awakening...and their redemption. Once more the prophet was silent and then, with the wind gusting increasingly wild and rapid, the harbinger of a coming storm, he looked intently into my eyes and began speaking the words of his final charge:

“ ‘So then take up your trumpet Nourial (Bill), set it to your mouth and blow. Let the sound of the watchman be heard in the city, let the call of redemption cover the land. Let the word go forth and have its way, and let those who have ears to hear, let them hear it...and be saved.’”

“I came across a passage of Scripture that I believe underlines what you have taught concerning a Christian voting. We know that many evangelical Christians, especially ‘King James Only’ Christians, have a major problem or concern voting for a Mormon. They probably would have major concerns voting for a Sabbath-keeping/Holy Day observing Christian too...anyone that doesn’t fit into their ‘box’ might not be worth voting for, in their mind.

“We know that Yahveh can use anyone...from Satan in the Book of Job to the man down the street, to execute His Will. It may be a fateful mistake for evangelicals or other Protestants (and Sabbath-keepers) to ignore Romney due to his Mormonism and let another who is clearly anti-Christian in their fruits, namely POTUS (President of the United States), to win re-election and to continue expanding his fascist fruits into national policy.

“Should a Christian stay at home and sit this 2012 general election out? It really is a personal choice, but one, I think, shouldn’t disqualify Romney due to his Mormonism. Yes, his faith is outside the mainstream. Yes, there is an element of cultism in the Mormon religion as there was in the Worldwide Church of God. There is an element of cultism in the Catholic faith too. But, they all profess Jesus Christ...which is more than an atheist, agnostic, or a Muslim would EVER do.

“Sometimes a sincerely righteous man or woman may ignore a sign from God or an instrument of God’s deliverance or wrath because of being overly righteous and thinking as a human thinks and not as God thinks. Many sincere Christians can get afflicted from self-righteousness from time to time, especially when dealing with other Christians or just other people who are outside of their group. Unfortunately this spirit is quite prevalent today in America.

“A great example of a righteous man who ignored a warning from God was King Josiah. Turning to II Chronicles 35:20 – 27, we see that God used a pagan king, Pharaoh Necho, to do His will. Josiah (insert a fervent, evangelical Christian here) apparently couldn’t see or believe that Yahveh would use a pagan pharaoh and ignored the warnings from this king in verse 21. Josiah died because of choosing not to believe that God could use anybody, like a pagan king who worshiped Rao, Osiris and the other Egyptian demonic gods, to enact His will.

“Maybe Protestant Christians en masse won’t vote for Romney and will stay at home...and cause POTUS to win re-election. If that happens, maybe in one, or two, or three years, or by 2016, those Christians will deeply regret ignoring the clear choice because Romney was their ‘Pharaoh Necho’....they may say in their heart, ‘Surely God wouldn’t use a Mormon to help stave off the death of the Republic...I’ll just wait for another Reagan or at least a good Baptist or Protestant candidate to run...Romney’s not a Christian at all.’ That evangelical Christian might up end “severely wounded” as Josiah was in verse 23 and pay for his lack of choice with his life.....God can use a Mormon (or Catholic or Jehovah’s Witness) to counteract a closeted Muslim from destroying His people or His land, if that is His will.

“Just something for all of us to think about...as you stated last week concerning the book of Ecclesiastes, there is a time for everything under the sun. There is a time to vote and a time not to vote...clearly, this seems to be a time to vote as there is a clear choice before the nation. Either way, our Republic is judged and found wanting but perhaps God is showing us mercy via a Romney victory, which may give us several more years to prepare, to get our spiritual and physical house in order. But if we ignore the mercy, our 'severe wound' may come quicker than we think."

"One of the first thoughts as I woke up this cold Thanksgiving 2012 morning was your Sept-Oct article "Who Will Win The White House". In it, you related how Moshe Aharon Shak's Bible Code research gave strong indications that Mitt Romney would unseat Barack Obama as President of the United States. Sadly, this prediction was wrong.

"Or was it?

"To quote the article:

" 'Moshe Aharon Shak has researched the Republican primary candidates in the Bible code because of his belief that the Bible code carries the same validity as the Word of G-d, he presents the codes as God's divine revelation regarding who will be elected."

"Mister Shak, like many others past and present including the great pioneering scientist and religious scholar Sir Isaac Newton, believes that God wrote significant parts of world history -- perhaps even ALL of it -- into the Old Testament of the Bible as a further proof that it was NOT the mere scribbings of a bunch of sunstroke-suffering desert dwellers no better than the Druids or Aztecs or Egyptians in their empty beliefs. Indeed, this is what may have led to the unusual precautions taken by scribes charged with hand copying the Scriptures. As I recall from a post-Armstrong edition of the old "The World Tomorrow" program on the subject, the rules for this task included the spacing of letters - - about a hair's width apart -- and numbering and counting each letter. No errors, additions, or deletions allowed! (Rev 22:18-19)

"So why did Mitt Romney lose?

"Maybe we should ask whether he really lost!

"I believe the second letter to the Thessalonians, chapter 2, verses 9 to 12 may hold the answer: (NKJV, courtesy biblegateway.com)

"⁹The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power, signs, and lying wonders,¹⁰ and with all unrighteous deception among those who perish, because they did not receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. ¹¹And for this reason God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie, ¹² that they all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

"God will delude them into believing the lie. What lie? The lie that the Lawless One is someone great. Someone who deserves to be in power. Someone who will help the people. Someone here to save the people. Is it a stretch to include, "Someone who actually won the election fair and square"?

"Since 2008 at least, who is the one that was referred to literally, though usually mockingly, as 'the messiah'?

"Interestingly, and chillingly I might add, I was listening to one of those free online investment lectures they advertise on conservative talk radio shows at work yesterday -- don't worry, I was caught up with my work for the week -- that went into the history of the last two energy booms here in America and the third one, now, still in its beginning stages. Back around the turn of the century, and again in the 1930's, two big oil finds were about to spell big profits not only for the investors but for America and the world as a whole. Along the way, we went from being a nation of foot, horse, and street car transportation to a nation of car drivers. The automobile brought its own headaches, of course, but it also brought good paying jobs, the rise of industry and modern manufacturing methods, the end of horse manure pollution and diseases borne of it, and even the winning of World War II, which, incredibly, still saw the use of horse cavalry in some engagements.

"Oil also brought something else, too: power to the sitting President. First there was Theodore Roosevelt, a man I know you admire, but a man nevertheless. He was a bigger-than-life fellow, but he suffered the flaw of believing he knew better how other people should behave and interact, and as President he had the power to enforce his will. That was the real beginnings of the 'Progressive Movement' here in America. Under him, the federal government began flexing its muscles. Some of it was benign: the Food and Drug Administration, for example, watched out for tainted meat and phony patent medicines. Others were seemingly benign: the Sherman Anti-Trust Act, for one, which forbade businessmen from making deals that locked out competition. This led to the fracturing of John D. Rockefeller's mighty Standard Oil itself. I'm not a businessman, or else I could probably go into detail about how this was not necessarily the best thing to do, but that was the drift I was getting from the lecture.

“Theodore's younger cousin Franklin, a Democrat, followed thirty years later in the midst of H.L. Hunt's big oil find in Texas. (Hunt bragged in crude terms about how he practically stole it from under another man who lacked his talents. Thankfully, I had my speakers turned down low when the presenter quoted him!) Due to the availability of oil and his power to regulate it, FDR was able to throw his own weight around and get his alphabet soup of federal agencies and programs launched under the guise of helping alleviate the Depression. What he actually did was create an everlasting bureaucracy that haunts us to this day, as well as the first permanent entitlement programs. Like dope pushers, politicians ever since then have threatened that if they do not win the next election, their opponent would end Social Security, Medicare, and now Obamacare, and the frightened masses have usually believed them ever since. This even happened this year in my home state of Pennsylvania, where incumbent Senator Bob Casey, an Obama favorite, apparently convinced voters that a self-made man like Tom Smith would throw his own mother under the proverbial bus by cutting off her Medicare, despite the fact that she even appeared in a commercial with him to rebut it!

“What does it mean for Obama? Recently, a study concluded that advanced drilling methods have resulted in experts recalculating just how much recoverable oil exists here in the USA, and the results were alarming: in the next few years, we could be producing as much as or more than prominent OPEC nations. America would overtake Saudi Arabia! So far, Obama has put a virtual freeze on drilling permits on federal lands, as well as permits that would provide the infrastructure to begin bottling and exporting our amazing natural gas supplies to countries like Japan where huge profits can be made. Those permits are POWER. Up till now, Obama has been siding with radical environmentalists who seemingly believe in their hearts that Man is a curse on Mother Earth, and that the burning of even a single piece of wood for warmth is a sin against her. Now that his second election has (apparently!) been won, would he have any further need of their support? Or let me put it this way: Who do you think has deeper pockets, the Sierra Club or Exxon-Mobil and friends? And which one of these has enough "juice" in Washington to rush through a vote to repeal the Twenty-second Amendment and allow Obama to run for a third term, once this great energy boom and the prosperity and jobs it spawns begins making believers out of even Obama's harshest critics? (Matthew 24:4)

“So, along with a generous helping of turkey, cranberry sauce, and a little potato, I give you this "food for thought".

“Happy Thanksgiving, Mr. and Mrs. D, and all who join you at the table today. And if what I wrote here turns out to be the truth, then give thanks to God that no veil has descended upon our eyes.”

“I was checking my e-mail this evening when I found this article:
<http://www.wnd.com/2012/11/forensic-profiler-obama-confessing-election-fraud/>

“If you haven't read it yet, the forensic profiler mentioned in it says that guilty people have a habit of subconsciously confessing their guilt, and that a trained observer can pick up on this.

“I didn't get a chance to ask you today after the Bible study if you read my e-mail yet. The part where I speculated about the interpretation of the Bible Codes concerning the 2012 election being correct after all came back to me as I read this.

“Remember when God set an angel to guard the way to the Tree of Life once Adam and Eve ate from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil? God did this because He didn't want Man to achieve God-like status before we all had a chance to learn our lesson.

“I believe that was a ‘kinda-sorta-like’ type of what happened this past Election Day: a majority of the American people were about to repudiate Obama and his Chicago Marxist Gangsterism before EVERYONE had learned their lesson.

“The voters may have chosen Mitt Romney, but as 2nd Thessalonians Chapter 2:11-12 indicates, though Satan is behind the lies of the Lawless One, and many people see through those lies, God causes the unrighteous not to see the lies but to believe them. This is why no one is mounting any sort of challenge against the results. No recounts, no hearings about missing ballots, or precincts that had more votes than registered voters, or electronic voting machines that changed Romney votes into Obama votes. Twelve years ago, Al Gore kicked and screamed about the close results in his losing race against George W. Bush, and pressed for recounts, including the infamously ridiculous "hanging chads" and "dimpled chads" recount. As a result, the world witnessed the silly spectacle of people in Florida inspecting paper ballots to see whether the little holes next to the candidates' names were punched out correctly, and even trying to interpret whether the voters "meant" to punch out the names on them. I remember when my local newspaper ran a picture of a recounting staring intently at a ballot, as if willing the holes to punch themselves cleanly. I even heard that some of those ballots they looked at may not have been final, but may actually have been mistakes pulled from the trash cans where they had been tossed by the voters themselves!

“Long ago, we chose to play the Devil's games, and God won't let us drop out until the games are finished.

“Time will prove me right or wrong, but for now I believe the long-awaited False Messiah, the Anti-Christ is here.”

“What an absolute tragedy to turn on the nightly news and see the tragic state of this country's political system and the nation overall.

“Even though the Bible has a lot to say about an America that will face God's judgment, where is the justifiable anger towards what is happening to the country?”

“The mindset of a complacent Lot has taken hold of the very people who should know better.

“Genesis 19:16 says Lot lingered when ordered to leave Sodom. The two angels had to physically lay hands upon him and his family to press upon them how urgent the situation was. Lot had become so accustomed to the absolute godless lifestyle of his surroundings and was in no hurry to leave the city.

“Where is the urgency and justifiable anger that God wants His people to have? America is not only one large Sodom, but a nation of Lots.

“To realize Lot had to be physically pulled away in order not to be destroyed with the city, is his reasoning really any different than what the attitude is within both the churches of God and mainstream Christianity? Revelation 3:17—‘I am rich and increased with goods, and have need of nothing . . .’ Lot didn't see that he was ‘. . . wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked.’ Human nature never changes, and people today are just as guilty of complacency as was Lot during his day.

“There is a misconstrued understanding of what true anger is. Emotional fuses are short and whether it's words expressed from a car during road rage or disgust with tragic out of touch politicians in Washington, what has happened to justifiable anger towards what deserves anger?”

“When reading Isaiah 58:1 or Ezekiel 33, in order to fulfill what is commanded, it does require anger – an anger towards sin.

“Many people are depressed and frustrated, but few people are able to express anger with God's stamp of approval. Ephesians 4:26—‘Be you angry, and sin not . . .’ Proper anger involves urgency.

“When looking at the tragic state of the country, and how quickly the US is deteriorating, people who are observing are resigning themselves to what's taking place. As a nation, we've lost the ability to be angry with the out-of-control behavior of people who are destroying the country. Instead, the ranks of those who are deeply disturbed and are willing to stand up and be counted are being depleted. It's exactly what Satan wants.

“When looking at the complacency within the churches of God and mainstream Christianity, the condition sets in and doesn't leave because the Bible isn't the driving force behind the responsibility God gives to those who call themselves Christian.

Because people are able to wake up every day and carry out normal routines without disruptions, little is it realized that just as 9/11 occurred without warning, at any moment events far worse are going to strike. It's sad and should stir people to be angry towards a mindset that has become a cancerous condition around the country.

"Thank you for speaking out with urgency and expressing anger when it's justified. My prayers continue for you, Cappy and all who are involved in the Work you are doing."

"In late October 2012 with Election Day drawing near, a massive storm began to approach the East coast of the United States. This storm, which was known as Hurricane Sandy, was the largest storm by diameter ever recorded over the Atlantic Ocean with the reach of its winds stretching 1,100 miles from one end to the other. 'Its circulation is enormous; it's affecting one way or another, the entire eastern third of the country. The storm is the largest tropical storm in the Atlantic,' said Rob Carolan, a meteorologist from Nashua, New Hampshire. Mr. Carolan further went on to say, 'I have never seen a storm this large in regards to wind flow. So many bad things had to come together all at once. It is going to make the Perfect Storm look small. It's remarkable what an impact this is going to have.' On October 29, 2012, Maryland Governor Martin O'Malley issued a dire warning. 'The days ahead are going to be very difficult,' Governor O'Malley declared. 'There will be people who die and are killed in this storm.'

"Remarkably, Hurricane Sandy accomplished feats that would have otherwise seemed impossible. For example, not only did the storm wreak havoc on air travel around the world while causing nearly ten thousand flights to be cancelled, it also resulted in the shut-down of the New York Stock Exchange, as well as the cancellation of all meetings that had been scheduled at the United Nations building.

"In the aftermath of the storm, millions of people in the states of New York, New Jersey, and the surrounding regions were without power. Facing a sprawling power outage and widespread gasoline shortages, the people of New York and New Jersey grew increasingly frustrated and began to lash out against the authorities. 'This is America, not a third world nation. We need food, we need clothing,' said Staten Island borough president Jim Molinaro. The unpleasant circumstances prompted one New Yorker to say, 'I feel like a victim of Hurricane Katrina. I never thought it could happen here in New York, but it's happened.'

"The damage caused by the storm was significant. In fact, a report by the Associated Press indicates that thousands upon thousands of trees have been uprooted, some of which were over 120 years old. 'These are perfectly healthy trees, some more than 120 years old that have survived hurricanes, ice storms, nor'easters, anything Mother Nature could throw their way. Sandy was just too much,' said Todd Forrest, a vice president at the New York Botanical Garden. An estimated 10,000 trees were destroyed in New York City, while 113,000 were reportedly destroyed or damaged within the state of New Jersey. Sadly, Hurricane Sandy also claimed the lives of over two hundred people within the United States, Canada, and the Caribbean region.

"For several months I had felt in my spirit that Barack Obama would be given four more years as President of the United States. As I watched the news of Hurricane Sandy, I could not help but feel even more certain that Obama would be re-elected. A storm of such significance, which occurred right before the election, hardly seemed like a coincidence. I believe that Hurricane Sandy was symbolic of the approaching spiritual storm which will soon engulf the United States and much of the world.

“Thankfully, we have a Saviour who will guide us through this storm, and with His strength we will have the power to endure until the end. In the book of Mark, chapter 4, we read of Jesus Christ rebuking a storm and uttering the command, ‘Peace, be still.’ In like manner, our Lord is ready and willing to give us the strength and wherewithal to withstand the spiritual storms of this life. Even as the waves are crashing all around us and the world sometimes seems to be a bleak and hopeless place, our Saviour can speak to our souls and tell us, ‘Peace, be still.’ For as the Apostle Paul wrote in Philippians 4:7, ‘And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.’ If you have not yet completely yielded your heart to God, I urge you to do so now.”

“Greetings from the Beloved but corrupt country
 - The New SA!

“I praise God for leading me to understand how to listen to TPM video on my PC. Bless Nick Wood!

“You may recall that I sometimes called my late wife ‘Job-ina’ for her unending patience – especially with me! Strangely, I came across a little paper medal she gave to me after about 45 years of marriage. In gold lettering she thanked me for all the patience I had to endure with her; how humble and virtuous a woman she was! By her actions she taught me to be patient and endure! MAY GOD KEEP HER AND REWARD HER.

“MY son Francois, also encouraged me last week to endure and when I cried to him in my loneliness, he advised me that I must consider it as a major trial because God loves me. I, therefore, wish to encourage all brethren to have patience and endure to the end. Thank you, once again, for sharing the revelations with us. ENDURE, brother Bill!”

“This recent election . . . I feel was a total farce. The name should be changed from The democrat party to the human nature party which was so evident in the attitude of many of the voters, Jer.17:9. The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked. Who really knows how bad it is?”

The candidate who would promise the most free stuff would get their votes, I don't think we as a nation has ever had as much fraud as we had in this election, I saw people on Twitter proudly say they had voted three times for Obama, and with every voter that voted more than once that canceled out a legitimate vote for Romney. And every state that had voter I.D. laws went for Romney and ever state that didn't have voter I.D. went to Obama. I heard busloads of people were bused into various voting precincts and given free bags of groceries to vote for Obama.

“Have we as a nation lost our ability to govern ourselves and will vote for any flimflam dictator that will dangle something shiny before our eyes? The democate Party booted God at it's convention and it seems God brought to pass His Word in Rom.1:28, Furthermore, since they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, he gave them over to a depraved mind, to do what ought not to be done.”
