

Is Obama a Sociopathic and Delusional Hypocrite?

Almighty God, our Father in heaven, we come before your great throne in prayer to give you thanks for all the blessings that you pour out on us daily. We give you the praise, honor and glory for your mighty works. You are our maker and provider, our deliverer and sustainer, our protector and guardian of life. We commit our ways into your hands and pray that you will inspire and guide us as we inquire of your will for us that we may do all things according to your will and be pleasing in your sight and prove to be profitable servants. We thank you for your truth being revealed to us and we bless your name and ask these things in the name of Jesus Christ your Son, Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord and Savior.

Many Americans will gather together five days from now which is the fourth Thursday in November on the Roman calendar which is a secular holiday that is set aside as America's national day of Thanksgiving and the story of our forefathers. To many, it remains the day of family coming home, feasting, watching football, turkey sandwiches—followed by a stress-filled Friday of frantic Christmas shopping at the mall. However, Thanksgiving Day honors the making of a new nation in freedom and liberty back in 1620 and recalls to our memory the real story of courageous men, women, and children. Pilgrims from England arrived on the shores of the new American frontier lived honorably and through faith in God made enormous sacrifices to secure freedom for us all. They believed in the sovereignty of God at work in their lives and His providential direction of their circumstance. Both Pilgrims and native American Indians came together in peace and celebrated, giving of thanks for their bountiful fall harvest blessing from God.

America's Thanksgiving Day is not a commanded festival day of God, yet it is pleasing to God when we in gratitude give him a day of prayer, praise and thanksgiving for all of His blessings to us. The apostle Paul said, "be thankful in all things." Two times this week we have been blessed by "finding that which was lost".

Cappy reached into her purse on Sunday for a small red metallic card case only to discover it was missing. She remembered using it last on Friday. After thoroughly combing the house and car twice, she phoned several places where she had run errands. Then notified the list companies involved for security issues. I suggested she make a mental timeline retracing everywhere she had gone, what she had done since last seeing case sitting on the table Friday. That afternoon she had hurriedly scooped some excess paperwork from the dining room table into a small trashcan which she emptied into the big trashcan. Once again she carefully began emptying the kitchen trashcan. Hallelujah! The lost was found. Reaching the very bottom, there it was, sandwiched between a sheaf of papers. That was miracle number one.

That same afternoon, the bank returned a foreign check by Fed-EX for a rather large amount that required my personal signature which is required in addition to the regular bank stamp before being deposited. I had forgotten to tell Cappy about this required procedure for foreign checks. So I explained, signed it and gave it to Cappy. On our way to the bank she asked did you bring that check? I had not, so we returned home to get it, but could not find it after checking everywhere. Deciding that we should check the stack still left to do again, there it was at the very bottom. We had been looking for the unfolded 8 x 10 sheet letter as received forgetting that it had gotten folded in half! Miracle number two – finding the notice and getting to the bank before closing time. Both times we prayed about the situation and the lost was found. Praise the Lord. God says to put all things in prayer and He will hear us.

We usually focus very carefully when we lose something and search until it is found. When we do find it, we have great joy and want to call friends and neighbors together saying “rejoice with me, the lost is found.” In Luke 15, Jesus describes the rejoicing in heaven over repentance of sinners with three different parables. The missing sheep that has been found — “there will be more rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous who do not need to repent”. (2) the widow with 10 silver coins lost one. (3) the lost son (was spiritually dead; alive again—repented).

Today people in America and the world have turned their back on God and need to find their way back to Him. Things are being turned upside down in all areas which is causing chaos worldwide. ISIS jihadists maintain a stronghold based in Iraq and claim credit for random acts of terror throughout European countries and the Middle East. War continues to be waged in the Sudan and Syria. Massive immigration is flooding Europe and the Obama Administration has agreed to bring 200,000 more Muslims into America’s borders by 2016. The majority of the immigrants fleeing are Islamic young men. Islam is diabolically opposed to Christianity on which our country was founded.

Charles Krauthammer, “Obama’s Phony War”— “With a stunning tone, detachment and lassitude, Obama compounded his errors by impatience and irritability at the very suggestion that his Syrian strategy has failed and caused a backlash of migration into Europe which is threatening the entire stability of the entire continent of Europe.” His policies have caused that and now he is saying that America needs to bring over a 100,000 to 200,00 of these immigrants into our country by 2016 – 2017. The only time Obama showed any passion in Turkey during his speech was in denouncing Republicans for hard-heartedness toward Muslim refugees.

Does this once again prove that Obama in his heart-of-hearts, who grew up in Indonesia and was trained as a Muslim—who has publically stated the most beautiful sound he has ever heard on earth is the Muslim call to prayer—is still a Muslim? The rest of the speech was mere pretense and petulance, dismissing criticisms of his Syria policy as his critics — “just popping off at the mouth.” Both Democrats and Republicans are confused—have turned away from God—and no one seems to have a better solution except Presidential candidates: Trump, Cruz and Carson.

Krauthammer continues. “Obama brags about his 65 nation coalition to defeat ISIS and on his war against ISIS. One of the 65 is the nation of Luxembourg. Are these nations a real asset and able to engage in fighting ISIS? Absolutely not! There seems to be an absence of passion and urgency in his commitment against ISIS.” The air campaign over Syria averaged over seven strikes daily. In operation Desert Storm, America flew 1,140 strikes a day fighting Saddam Hussein. Obama is not fighting ISIS, because he created ISIS. Evidence is mounting that Obama is behind the crisis in the Middle-East that is creating instability and destruction. I believe he is Apollyon the Destroyer. Keep your eyes open and see if this is not right.

Krauthammer says, “Obama’s priorities are else-where. He is not worried about Muslim extremism and he will not even use the word in the same sentence, or in any paragraph. Obama says his priorities are climate change and closing Guantanamo in Cuba where multiple Muslim terrorists are being held as prisoners.” Five top terrorist commanders and Guantanamo detainees have already been released from Guantanamo in exchange for U.S. soldier Bergdahl, a prisoner of war defector who turned Muslim. We as a people need to cry out to God with earnest prayer and supplication that He will save us from the wrath of Satan the devil and the wrath of Obama, who is being used as a tool by Satan.

Dinesh D'Souza, conservative commentator, film maker and best-selling author directed a 2012 film, “2016: Obama's America,” and “Obama's America: Unmaking the American Dream” was indicted January 2014 by a federal grand jury, for campaign finance law violations – arranging excessive campaign contributions to a candidate for the U.S. Senate. Many believe the D'Souza indictment was politically motivated, selectively prosecuted and intended to deter vocal dissent against President Obama. In September, the court sentenced D'Souza to five years’ probation with eight months in a “community confinement center” (half-way house), a $30,000 fine, plus perform eight hours of community service each week during his probation and also required to undergo psychiatry therapy on a weekly basis.

D’Souza states, “Little did Obama know, how much I would learn from this experience that was meant to teach me a lesson.” In his newly published book, Stealing America: How the left has Stolen America, he explains what his experience with criminal gangs in prison taught him about Obama, Hillary and the Democratic Party—he learned about the criminal mind-set and how criminals think. Years ago, he read St. Augustine’s book, City of God that poses the following questions, “What are kingdoms but gangs of criminals on a large scale? What are criminal gangs, but petty kingdoms?” Obama now has charge of the kingdom of America. Then Saint Augustine tells you how you steal a country. D’Souza began to apply this to the Clinton’s and Obama and his regime in Washington. They have stolen America and are in the process today of stealing our country right out from under the feet of our people. D’Souza “began to visualize Obama, the Clintons and modern liberalism, not as a defective movement of ideas, but as a criminal enterprise and takeover of America.” (The Bible calls this wickedness and evil.)

Take a look at the Clinton Foundation and how the Clinton’s have enriched themselves by stealing money from the public by false pretenses—pretending to help the poor. Check out Peter Schweizer’s recently published book, “Clinton Cash: The Untold Story of How and Why Foreign Governments and Businesses Helped Make Bill and Hillary Rich.”

“Obama and the Clintons are stealing the entire wealth of this nation, the value of homes and the life-long savings of all the people. The sum total of every industry from banking to electronics, the oil drilling, all the funds allocated to help education and every other service—both private and public—that have been built up over the last two centuries, are being stolen in turn. The thieves I am speaking about want all of it. The Obama-Hillary stealing of America does not stop there. They want to own your business and your savings, how you work and with whom you associate. They also want to control your education, your faith —designate ‘what’ you can believe and not believe—and your family. They want to control every aspect of your life—your dreams, your ambitions, inspirations, your pursuit of happiness and bring you into abject slavery. They want to own you! To a considerable degree, they already do.” Shocking!

Religious liberty is at stake in America. Bible believing Christians are being singled out by new laws. Beware of oncoming legal battles pitting religious liberty objections against the rights of same-sex couples established in the Supreme Court’s decision in June 16. Huckabee says, “There are many examples of businesses fined, penalized or economically terrorized because the owners held to their convictions about marriage based on their religious views.” Two months after the Supreme Court declared same-sex marriage a constitutional right in all 50 states. For refusing to issue marriage licenses for two gay couples, County Clerk, Kim Davis of Morehead, Kentucky, was put in jail. In accordance to her Christian faith, she refused to authorize same-sex marriages and took a stand that has infuriated gay-rights advocates. Bakeries have also become an unlikely battleground in the same sex marriage debate. Owners of the Sweet Cakes bakery in Oregon were penalized $350,000 by the court for refusal of service to a lesbian couple. In accordance with his religious beliefs (marriage is a religious institution ordained by God) and believe their decision is protected by his Constitutional right to practice their religion as they see fit.”

In the final analysis D’Souza advises, “read the history of America as a story of massive theft. The white man, according to the Native Americans, stole the country from them. Then they stole the lives of African-Americans who were brought to this country as slaves. Then they stole half of the country of Mexico in the Mexican-American War according to the Progressive-liberals (leftists: aka, Communists) in our country. In addition, America allegedly oppresses women, homosexuals, the blacks and the poor.” These people want to totally change America and to bring about total transformation to the way they want it to be—a Communist Dictatorship. Skip the semantics; they are Socialists-Communist criminals.

Talk show host, Michael Savage: “Even Reporters Shocked by Obama/s ISIS Response (11/16/20). “There is a dance of death in the West and actual death in the Middle East, courtesy of the Islamofascists, Meanwhile, the Caesar in the White House entertains himself with a thousand sycophants, partying on behind closed doors as if the Islamofascist hand will not touch him. He thinks he's protected from this new plague, the Black Death of radical Islam." An Italian religious TV station, TV2000, posted an audio clip of an interview with Pope Francis in which he affirmed that the Paris attack was part of what he previously described as a "piecemeal" World War III in which ISIS is killing and displacing thousands of people, including many Christians.

But President Obama's reaction to the attack by ISIS in Paris Friday night, which left at least 129 people dead, was jaw-dropping, Savage said Monday. "We have leaders who are so spineless or insane or drugged, that they're not leaders," Savage said. "They're going to kill all of us. At the G-20 Summit in Turkey on Monday, Obama was put on the defensive by reporters questioning his strategy against ISIS and his unwillingness to alter it in the wake of the Paris attack."

America is partying, while Obama has emasculated the military and weakened our country. Just as previous great empires have fallen, can the unthinkable now happen to America? Former House Speaker, Tom Delay, stated Obama is incompetent and has a wrong worldview and no idea what he is doing and has all but surrendered to ISIS and Congress will not stand up to him.

Throughout Monday's press conference (11.16.15), Obama insisted that his strategy for defeating ISIS was working and did not see a need to change. His tone during the conference alternated between defensive and disinterested. In detailing his administration's strategy to destroy ISIS following several devastating terrorist attacks in Paris, President Obama said, "What I'm not interested in doing is posing or pursuing some notion of American leadership or America winning." He does not care, nor is he interested in winning against ISIS. Rush Limbaugh calls this attitude arrogant condescension.

Whistle Blower (10/2015) — "Extremism on the March" by David Kupelian, author of The Marketing of Evil clearly reveals the stunning strategies and tactics of persuasion employed by those engaged in an all-out war against America's Judeo-Christian culture. He reveals exactly when, where and how and especially why Americans bought into the lies that now threaten the future of America. Many of these have been purposely created by Obama, to advance a largely concealed agenda!

In 2 Thessalonians 2, the Apostle Paul foretold that the Mystery of Iniquity will work under cover until it is finally exposed. Says Kupellian, "AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL HAS BECOME AMERICA THE BIZARRE. Government openly defies the law, Christians are prosecuted as criminals, children 'transition' to the opposite sex, the president supports our enemies—and 130 million Americans depend on mind-altering substances just to get through life. Turbocharged by the Obama presidency, long-coalescing forces of the political and progressive cultural Left are bringing about their much-heralded 'fundamental transformation of America.' Today the Left which dominates America's key institutions, from the news and entertainment media, to education, to government itself—is accomplishing much more than just enlarging government, redistributing wealth, and de-Christianizing the culture".

"With the Left's wild celebration of sexual anarchy, comes its intimidating culture of political correctness, and its incomprehension of the fundamental sacredness of human life. What few realize about this transformation is that the sheer stress of daily living in today's upside down America is literally driving millions of Americans to the point of illness—widespread dependency, debauchery, family breakdown, crime, corruption, addiction, despair, and suicide.” Surveying this growing chaos in American society, Kupelian exposes both the utopian revolutionaries and their extraordinary methods that have turned America’s most cherished values literally upside down—“to the point that madness is celebrated and normality demonized.”

Everything that people hold dear today is under assault, deliberately making people upset. According to Saul Alinsky, a far leftist and author of Rules for Radicals, it is essential to keep people in a constant uproar (angst) and disharmony. to achieve far left transformation in America. Our nation has been programed over the course of decades by subversive school systems and perverse news-media establishments into a shameful and degrading culture.

David Kupelian says, “The Snapping of the American Mind, is my metaphor for what we've lived through since the 1960s, meaning, we don't really understand what has happened to us and what has been leading us and where it's leading us to”, he said. “We've just been changing very rapidly over the past few decades, and most people don't really understand why.” The American people largely resisted major leftwing changes, he said, but the election of Barack Obama changed that. “It is all a big blur now. Pause a minute and consider that America’s most vexing geopolitical problems in the ‘Godless’ Modern Age have revolved around two malignant and virulently expansionist ideologies—Marxism, and sharia Islam. Yet for some reason Americans elected as their leader someone with a strong affinity for both.”

“It is a matter of public record, Obama was schooled as a Muslim in Indonesia, followed by decades steeped in Marxism and Far-Left radicalism –a worldview he has never renounced. But we did not hear this from the big media, who instead anointed Obama as a political messiah, comparing him with Jesus and God, in what became a full-fledged cult of personality, complete with people fainting right and left at his rallies. Three weeks after Obama’s inauguration in January 2009, Newsweek’s cover headlined, ‘We Are All Socialists Now.’ Congressional leaders Nancy Pelosi and Harry Reid abandoned efforts to fix the economy and instead maniacally pursued their plan to force the holy grail of socialism – government run health care – down the throat of an unwilling America. Millions of Americans openly objected to the Affordable Care Act which forced them to lose their health insurance, but that was just the beginning.”

Since then, crisis after crisis and scandal after scandal piled up as we behold our leaders in power essentially enthralled with the core ideology of Marxism, socialism, or collectivism. Phyllis Schlafly, American constitutional lawyer, conservative activist, author, speaker and founder of the Eagle Forum explains in her definitive book Who Killed the American Family? that the American family was destroyed by a combination of political activism, judges, economic theory of self-proclaimed experts and left-winged politicians. The goal of the progressives, Schlafly broadly summarizes, is to break down the American family, destroy parental authority, deny right and wrong, reduce family autonomy, and get as many people as possible dependent on government programs. In 1950 only 4 per cent of our nation’s children were born to unwed mothers. Today the rate is ten times higher with 41 per cent of U.S. births being illegitimate. The bottom line, however difficult to believe, is decades ago influential Marxist revolutionaries conspired to slowly extinguish Western culture, the religion that underpinned it—Christianity – and the nuclear family that cherishes, nurtures, and reproduces it.

“Why didn’t we see this happening? We had clues along the way while we were in the blur. Our colleges were becoming rapidly leftwing and immoral (many Ivy League schools now annually feature Sex Week). The powerful teachers’ union (NEA) is bizarrely Far Left as well. The National Council of Churches—the umbrella organization for many of America’s ‘mainline’ churches for some mysterious reason was backing every communist revolutionary movement in the world. Likewise, we heard about liberation theology—Marxism disguised as Christianity. Now, we see Islam being imported into America like a Trojan Horse How could we win the war against an evil ideology – yet simultaneously lose that same war? In many aspects, this was — and remains—a two-front war. While we actively repel the enemy in open and immediate battle, he simultaneously conducts a long-term slow-moving stealth (jihad) operation—seductive, sneaky, nonviolent, often even appealing and reasonable-sounding. That’s the one that gets us.”

“Recently we have witnessed the exact same two-front war strategy being used by Islamists intent on ‘fundamentally transforming’ America in their image. Islamic campaigns are being carried out every day right under our noses seemingly less threatening, but pursuing the same long-term goal of total sharia dominance. Federal prosecutors will attest, an advanced level of seditious Islamist infiltration and subversion exists within America’s borders right now, including widespread jihadist indoctrination and even terror recruitment on college campuses. Jihad recruitment, a long established problem in our prisons is expanding massively thanks to taxpayer-funded Muslim chaplains. In the digital Internet age, the world’s worst terrorists, including ISIS and al-Qaeda, use social media and other electronic means to successfully recruit disaffected Westerners to join their ranks.”

America is foolishly ignoring the Wahhabism roots of Saudi Arabia. We invited the Saudis into our country right after WW II in exchange for their oil. Our erstwhile so-called ally Saudi Arabia is rooted in Wahhabism which is being spread in content by their teachers and building of mosques in America. Obama is transforming America and doubling down in his efforts to bring tens of thousands more undocumented Syrian immigrant refugees into the U.S. A large portion of these immigrants are young Muslim men who are 18 to 24 years old.

World Net Daily (11/17/1): Fox News commentator Bill O’Reilly discussed Obama’s press conference in Turkey in which the president defended his disastrously ineffective policies for dealing with the rapidly metastasizing terror army ISIS after their attack on Paris. O’Reilly asked Charles Krauthammer from Washington. “Is President Obama delusional about ISIS?” Krauthammer, a Pulitzer-winning columnist and former psychiatrist responded, “Judging from the press conference, there are several explanations for that appalling performance; the kindest is that he’s delusional. Obama said on Friday that ‘ISIS was not gaining in strength.’ Of course, ISIS gaining in strength—‘delusion’ is the kindest [explanation]. The more likely explanation is, he knows that opposition is weakening, he knows that ISIS is strong and that it’s a threat, but in the end, he does not think it matters. He’s never thought the war on terror was important or existential.”

May I offer a different possibility? Maybe Obama knows the opposition is weakening but it not because he doesn't think it matters, it is because it is fulfilling his purpose and plan in the long run. He wants ISIS to succeed in disrupting the whole world into a blood bath as part of the scenario of making order out of chaos because he wants to be ruler of the New World Order that arises from the flames of war and revolution which ISIS is helping to implement.

WND (posted by David Kupellian (11/7/15) "Obama: Delusional or something worse?" "Many are straining to understand what is really going on inside Obama's mind including the possibility that he's a genuine sociopath (without conscience). Sociopaths are often well liked because of their charm and high charisma, but they do not usually care about other people. They think mainly of themselves, have a complete disregard for rules and lie constantly. One veteran forensic psychiatrist and an expert in thousands of court cases described his behavior to 'narcissistic personality disorder' (NPD). There are three key markers of NPD: 1) a grandiose view of one's achievements, 2) an utter inability to handle criticism, 3) lack of genuine empathy."

Psychiatrist, M. Scott Peck, M.D. in his book, People of the Lie explains "people like Obama are characterized by an un-submitted will. All adults who are mentally healthy submit themselves one way or another to something higher than themselves, be it God or truth or love or some other ideal. They do what God wants them to do rather than what they would desire. 'Thy will, not mine be done,' the God-submitted person says. They believe in what is true rather than what they would like to be true. Summarized, to a greater or lesser degree, all mentally healthy individuals submit themselves to the demands of their own conscience. Not so the evil, however. In the conflict between their guilt [i.e., conscience] and their will, it is the guilt that must go and the will that must win. Evil people have an extraordinary willfulness. They are men and women of obviously strong will, determined to have their own way with a remarkable power in the manner in which they attempt to control others."

Some cite Obama's barely disguised Marxist worldview and obsession with radical redistribution of wealth and power as 'moral' are not merely lying, but justify ruthless suppression of dissent, violence and tyranny as long as these measures advance the glorious (though delusional) utopian cause. Consider the mix that forms the current U.S. president's world view and sensibilities—his most influential mentors in childhood and his young teenage years, religious background as a Muslim in Indonesia and later a twenty-year affiliation with spiritual mentor Jeremiah Wright, and political rise in the legendarily corrupt "Chicago machine". By his own admission, the most important part of Obama's education, came via Saul Alinsky and the years steeped in the Chicago Marxist's revolutionary "community organizing" methods seared into his brain, "was the best education I ever had..."

People of America need to get right with God; to repent and return to our Creator and sustainer, ruler, provider and protector. It is time to "cry out to God on our knees" for his deliverance from corrupt leaders and to intervene and to save us all. Amen!
